2011 MEDIA INFORMATION

The 2011 Buffalo Bills media guide has been prepared to assist all members of the media in their coverage of the team. Should you need further assistance, please contact a member of the team's media relations staff.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: All credential requests must be made online at www.buffalobills.com/media.

MEDIA REQUESTS: Requests for photos, interviews and other general information about the Buffalo Bills should be directed to the Bills' Media Relations Department.

DAY OF THE GAME: The Press Will Call window is located on the west side of the stadium between Gates 3 and 4. To access the press box, enter through the Media Gate and walk towards the blue double doors directly in front of Gate 3. The press box attendant will check your credential for admittance to the box. Media parking is limited and must be arranged no later than Wednesday prior to each home game.

MEDIA TELEPHONES: Pool phones are provided for media use in the press box. Those who need to make arrangements for individual telephone lines in the press box need to contact Verizon at 877-243-6200.

- The 2011 media guide was prepared by the Buffalo Bills media relations department: Scott Berchtold, Chris Jenkins, Matt Heidt, Dom Rinelli and Stephanie King. Special assistance was provided by Michael Haim, James Hallas, Allison Hojnowski, Sarah Larkin, Andy Major, Gregg Pastore, Lou Spina and Preston Teague. Editors Emeritus – Joe Assad, Chuck Burr, Mark Dalton, Jack Horrigan, Bill Hudock, Denny Lynch, Rusty Martin, Don Phinney, Dave Senko, Mike Shaw, L. Budd Thalman. Certain Statistical Analysis in past years done by Dave Owczarzak and Paul Kovacs as well as the Elias Sports Bureau.

- The Buffalo Bills 2011 media guide is published by the Buffalo Bills Football Team, Inc. Cover and design elements by Bryan Matthews. Layout and page design by Matt Heidt. Anyone wishing to utilize any of the information contained within this media guide for purposes other than journalistic ones, such as use on a commercial website or other similar outlet, must obtain permission from the Buffalo Bills Media Relations Department. No exceptions granted without prior written approval from the Buffalo Bills.

Gone Green

- For the fourth consecutive year, the Buffalo Bills Media Relations Department has "Gone Green" with the media guide, which means we print significantly fewer hard copies than in past years.
- We have done so in an attempt to accomplish a couple of objectives. The first is to be environmentally friendly and use less paper. The second is to utilize today's technology to the fullest extent and direct media members to the Bills Interactive Online Media Guide at www.buffalobills.com/media. Realizing that information in the guide needs to be constantly updated, our interactive media guide allows us to have the latest information at our fingertips in terms of player bios, team and individual records and statistical figures, just to mention a few.
- We have also added more in-depth information to areas such as the Records and History Sections, bios and other often-used information. The website is also a great resource for newspaper clips and historical data as well. We strongly encourage all media members to utilize the site. We also encourage all media members to notify us of elements you would like to see on the site as we are striving to make our site your first, and best, resource when covering the Bills.
- This year we are excited to offer a new service for media. PRINT ON DEMAND -- If you prefer a hard copy, you can order a media guide online for around $15.00. The guide will be updated each week by Tuesday afternoon, so you can have the most up-to-date information every week if you prefer. Online orders will begin with the start of the regular season. More information can be found at www.buffalobills.com/media.

Ralph Wilson, Jr. is respected league-wide as an owner who is as passionate about his beloved Buffalo Bills as he is the National Football League. He is well regarded as "the conscience of the NFL" due to his unwavering commitment to speak his mind with the best interests of both at heart.

He is the only original American Football League owner who has kept his team in its originating city and his impact on Western New York is obvious. Since starting the Bills franchise in 1959, he has been a fixture in the Buffalo sports scene, leading The Buffalo News to name him the "Top Sports Figure" of the region in the past millennium.

Ralph Wilson's professional football career came full circle in 2009 as the charismatic leader of the Bills was bestowed the highest honor in the NFL with his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame while his team, along with the American Football League, celebrated its 50th Anniversary.

Mr. Wilson has been honored with numerous awards which include the Pete Rozelle Award from the Touchdown Club in New Orleans, the NFL Alumni's "Order of the Leather Helmet," the "Timmie" Award from the Touchdown Club of Washington D.C., the Maxwell Football Club's Francis J. (Reds) Bagnell Award for Contributions to the Game of Football, and the inaugural Lamar Hunt Award. Mr. Wilson was also awarded the Sovereign Grand Commander's Medal of Honor by the Masons and, along with four other NFL owners who are veterans of WWII, was honored by The National World War II Museum with the American Spirit Award.

Ralph Wilson's presence in the community transcends the game of football. The Bills are known throughout the league as pioneers in the area of youth football development and were the first to establish a youth football stadium at their facility. He has played an active role in obtaining matching grants from the NFL's Grassroots program for Buffalo area athletic fields totaling over $650,000 in recent years. He also contributed significant funds for the Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. Athletic Field in Detroit as part of the NFL's Youth Education Town Legacy gift during Super Bowl XL.

Mr. Wilson's philanthropic arm reaches various parts of the country with emphasis on the Western New York region. His diverse charitable endeavors include such benefactors as the food banks of Buffalo and Rochester, the United Way of Buffalo and Erie County, Shea's Performing Arts Center, the Cancer Wellness Center and the Hospice Foundation of WNY, where a wing of its main building is named the "Mary and Ralph Wilson, Jr. Hospice Inpatient Unit." The Wilson's served as honorary chairpersons for the Hospice Foundation's Center's Planning Committee to help build a new Children's Services Center. Their lead gift served as the cornerstone for the building which houses the Life Transition Center.

In 2011 The Ralph C. Wilson Foundation joined nine other philanthropic partners to form Roswell Park Cancer Institute's "Circle of 10" to support the building of RCPI's Clinical Sciences Center. Through his foundation, Mr. Wilson also donated a $2.5 million gift to the Pro Football Hall of Fame to support the museum's "Future 50" Expansion and Renovation Project that will include The Ralph Wilson, Jr. Pro Football Research and Preservation Center. In 2010 Ralph and Mary Wilson, also through the foundation, provided a $1 million gift to the Kaleida Health Foundation to support adult day care and home care in Western New York.

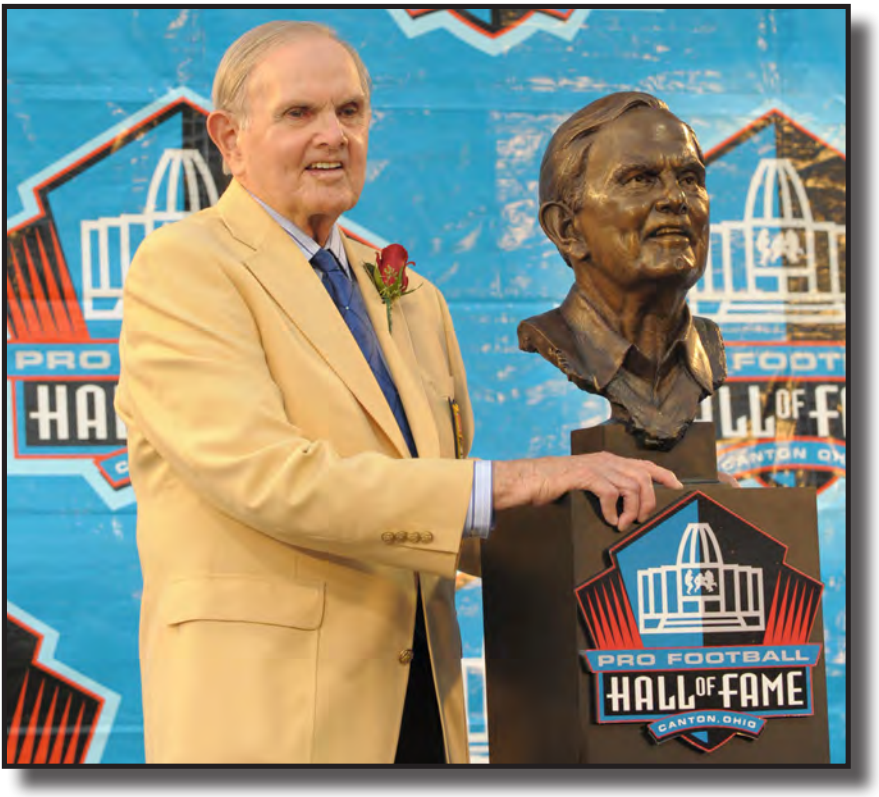
For his tremendous charitable efforts in the Buffalo area over the years, Mr. Wilson was named the Seymour Knox III Humanitarian Award winner in the spring of 2003 and in 2007 he was named the Outstanding Philanthropist of the Year by the WNY Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals. Also in 2007, he and his wife, Mary, were named the Philanthropists of the Year by the United Way of Buffalo and Erie County.

The Ralph Wilson Medical Research Foundation was established in 1999 and has contributed over $11 million to support medical research. The foundation, along with the Ralph C. Wilson Foundation, has contributed significant monetary gifts to Buffalo's Roswell Park Cancer Institute, the Cleveland Clinic, The Mayo Clinic, The Miami Project to Cure Paralysis, Wayne State University, the Alzheimer's Association-Greater Michigan Chapter, the Boys & Girls Club of Southeastern Michigan and a number of other worthy local initiatives.

Mr. Wilson is also a strong supporter of education and has established scholarship programs at various colleges including Canisius College and St. John Fisher College. The Bills President is also responsible for a building on the SJFC campus that houses the College of Education. He also endowed the University of Virginia's Jefferson Scholars Foundation with an ongoing fund that annually provides candidates from the Buffalo area with the ability to apply for the foundation's scholarship program.

Ralph Wilson maintains a permanent residence in Grosse Pointe Shores, MI with his wife, Mary. An avid tennis fan and player for many years, Mr. Wilson and his partner, Bob Sherman, were the 85 and over age division runner-up champions in both the European Doubles and Austrian Doubles Championship tournaments in the summer of 2005.



Bills Chief Executive Officer Russ Brandon has utilized his excellent skills in leadership and vision in unison with his passion for the sport and region to steer the Bills on a course for success since Ralph Wilson entrusted him with the responsibility of overseeing all operations within the organization in January of last year.

Brandon's abilities are highly respected not only on the local level, but certainly on a national scale and within the league as well. A great illustration of his talents lies in the honor bestowed upon him by NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell this past spring when he appointed Brandon to the NFL's Business Ventures Committee, which is responsible for the oversight of various businesses of the league, including consumer products, sponsorship and marketing.

In addition to his appointment to the NFL's Business Ventures Committee, Brandon is a member of the NFL Best Practices Committee where he assists in the development of new business strategies for the league.

In directing the Bills day-to-day operations as the Chief Operating Officer in 2008-09, and the addition of "General Manager" to his title in the latter year, Brandon's reach extended from working on the Draft and free agency to spearheading an effort to improve the Bills game day experience for all fans. During the two-year span, Brandon led the organization to its only back-to-back years of 55,000-plus season ticket sales while recording the second highest total in team history in 2008 and the third highest figure in 2009, both contributing greatly to the viability of the franchise.

The 2008 NFL Draft was the first with Brandon at the helm, though he was a part of the Bills Draft/free agent formula for a number of years with his involvement in the football operations process that included spearheading the selection and signing of free agents in the post-draft hours. In that Draft the Bills selected Rookie-of-the-Year candidate CB Leodis McKelvin, OT Demetrius Bell and WR Steve Johnson.

Brandon was instrumental as GM in 2009 in securing six current starting members on the Bill's roster through the Draft and free agency. The '09 Draft class brought to Buffalo second-round selection DB Jairus Byrd, the runner-up in the AP Rookie-of-the-Year voting, whose phenomenal rookie season was highlighted with his selection to the Pro Bowl and numerous all-rookie teams. The Bills Draft class also included first-round selection center/guard Eric Wood and guard Andy Levitre with the team's 2nd second-round pick.

Under Brandon's watchful eye, the team made key free agent acquisitions by signing QB Ryan Fitzpatrick and C Geoff Hangartner a day apart, while free agent CB Drayton Florence was added to bolster the secondary. And, in what turned out to be a very key decision, the team extended the contract of RB Fred Jackson in May of that year. But the Bills made the biggest headlines in 2009 while restoring fan excitement with the signing of free agent WR Terrell Owens, who led all Bills receivers in receptions and receiving yards while climbing into second place on the NFL's all-time receptions list with 1,006.

Brandon previously served as the team's Executive Vice President of Business Operations in 2007-2008, overseeing the team's vision and execution of all business-related endeavors. He developed a strong base of strategic business and community partners as well as programs that have helped the team connect with its fans and partners. Also during that time, he and his staff established the Bills Toronto Series, a program that is an additional anchor in regionalizing the franchise.

From January of 1999 through January 2006, Brandon served as the team's Vice President of Business Development and Marketing. He and his staff have been credited with the development of the team as a regional franchise and forming strategic alliances with key business partners.

Brandon's success in the sports business field has been recognized with numerous awards and in 2001 he was the recipient of Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal's Forty under 40 award.

In 1999, Brandon and his staff finalized the foundation of the regionalization plan by relocating Buffalo Bills Training Camp to St. John Fisher College in Pittsford, New York. The new layout and location provided the perfect blend of fan interaction and training accommodations. While at St. John Fisher College, the Bills have continually ranked among the NFL's best in training camp attendance.

Brandon joined the Bills in November of 1997 as Executive Director of Business Development and Marketing after earning a World Series ring as a member of the Florida Marlins front office. He began his sports business career as a member of the Rochester Red Wings (Triple A affiliate of the Baltimore Orioles) serving in many capacities, including assistant general manager.

The native of East Syracuse, New York, is also actively involved in regional initiatives. He is a member of the Advisory Board for the Department of Sports Management at Syracuse University, a member of the Board of Trustees at St. John Fisher College and serves on the board at the Buffalo Niagara Partnership. He and his wife Amy are involved in many charitable endeavors and had the honor to serve as Co-Chairs of the Hunter's Hope Gala in 2008.

Brandon was a four-year letterman in baseball and football at St. John Fisher College and graduated with a degree in communications. He was inducted into his alma mater's Sports Hall of Fame in 2004. He and Amy have three children, sons RJ and Jack, and daughter, Grace. They reside in Williamsville, New York.

Buddy Nix's career combination of scouting talent on the NFL level and coaching on the collegiate and high school levels serves him perfectly in his role as the Bills General Manager and the direction he has brought to the position has rejuvenated the Bills Football Team.

After being named GM on December 31, 2009, Nix worked diligently towards his first major decision and 20 days later announced Chan Gailey as the team's new head coach. Though the two men had never worked previously together, their styles and approach to the game are very similar. Both believe success is accomplished by hard work, being prepared and toughness. "It's more about fundamentals then being flashy and I think our team will reflect that philosophy," Nix commented at the time.

Nix's approach to building the Bills back into prominence centers around the Draft and he and the team received high marks for the 2011 Draft in which the Bills predominantly addressed the needs on defense by selecting six of the nine players from that side of the ball. With the third overall pick, the Bills chose dominant DT Marcell Dareus from Alabama, who is likely to make an immediate impact. DBs Aaron Williams (2nd pick) and Da'Norris Searcy (4th pick) will compete in the secondary while LB Kelvin Sheppard (3rd pick) impressed the Bills coaching staff during the Senior Bowl. In the 2010 Draft, the first with Nix as GM, the team chose RB C.J. Spiller from Clemson with its first selection, the player that some Draft evaluators and media felt was the best overall player. The team then drafted DT Torell Troup who saw significant playing time in his rookie season and Alex Carrington who recorded his first sack in 2010.

Nix's ability as a keen evaluator of talent also led to the Bills adding players in free agency in 2010 who fit the team in key positions. LBs Andra Davis and Reggie Torbor and DE Dwan Edwards did a good job as the team converted to a 3-4 scheme. Undrafted FA WRs David Nelson (31), Donald Jones (18) and Buffalo-native Naaman Roosevelt (9) combined for 58 catches for 705 yards and 4 TDs in 2010.

Nix had rejoined the franchise earlier in 2009 as the National Scout. Prior to returning to Buffalo, he had served seven seasons with the San Diego Chargers, first as Director of Player Personnel from 2001 – 2002, where he oversaw both pro and college scouting, and then as Assistant General Manager-Director of Player Personnel from 2003 – 2007.

San Diego finished 1-15 in the year prior to Nix's arrival and then made the playoffs four times between 2001 and 2008 while capturing four AFC West titles between 2004 and 2008. The Chargers advanced to the AFC Championship game in 2007.

Nix's first tenure with the Bills was as a Southeast region college scout from 1993 – 2000, where he first worked with former Bills GM John Butler before joining San Diego.

From 1984 – 1992, Nix was the head coach at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. Prior to his nine seasons at UTC, Nix's collegiate career included assistant positions at Louisiana State University (1981 – 1983), Auburn (1976 – 1980), Southern Mississippi (1972 – 1975), Livingston University (1970 – 1971) and Carson Newman (1969). In 1971, Livingston won the Division II National Championship while Nix was the Defensive Coordinator.

Nix's coaching career began in 1961 as a graduate assistant at the University of Alabama, the same year the Crimson Tide finished 11-0 and defeated Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl en route to a National Championship. He later coached positions at Anniston (1962 – 1964) and Eufaula (1964 – 1967) High Schools in Alabama and Jonesboro High School (1967 – 1969) in Georgia.

PERSONAL

Nix was born in Carbon Hill, AL and attended Talladega High School and played linebacker and fullback at Livingston University (the University's name has since been changed to West Alabama University). He was inducted into Livingston's Hall of Fame in 1983.

Buddy and his wife, Diann, have three children, Steve (wife Sherry), Stan (wife Holi), and Stacey (husband Allen). They also have six grandchildren, Dakota, Tyler, Ana, Hope, Tucker and Sawyer.

NIX'S NOTES AS CHARGERS ASST. GM/DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

- Drafts from 2002-08 yielded 16 players who started at least one game for the Chargers in 2008.
- Drafts during his tenure produced eight Pro Bowlers: CB Antonio Cromartie (2008), C Nick Hardwick (2007), C Vincent Jackson (2010), K Nate Kaeding (2007, 2010), LB Shawne Merriman (2006-08), T Marcus McNeil (2007-08), S Hank Milligan (2006) and QB Philip Rivers (2007-08, 2010).
- Three of his unsigned rookie free agents – TE Antonio Gates (2005-10), G Kris Dielman (2008-10) and WR/ST Kassim Osgood (2007-08, 2010) also earned the honor to represent the AFC in the Pro Bowl.
- San Diego finished the 2008 season with 38 players on its roster drafted or signed as undrafted free agents during Nix's tenure with the team.
- During the 2004 draft, San Diego traded QB Eli Manning to the New York Giants in exchange for QB Philip Rivers and third-round draft choice and a first-round draft choice in '04 (K Nate Kaeding, LB Shawne Merriman) and a fifth-round choice in 2005. Three of the players acquired in the trade went the Pro Bowl while with San Diego.

Chan Gailey's coaching philosophy with an emphasis on fundamentals over flare proved to be the best guidance for a young Bills team that posted a 4-4 mark in the second half of 2010, his first year at the head coaching helm in Buffalo.

Gailey became the 15th head coach in Bills history when he was named to the position on January 19th, 2010. Now in his 17th season in the NFL coaching ranks, Gailey is recognized league-wide for his successful offenses, though he has coached all three phases of the game during his vast coaching career.

Gailey has over three decades of coaching experience, including head coaching stints in college, World League and the NFL. Gailey served as head coach of the Dallas Cowboys from 1998-99, leading the Cowboys to playoff berths in each season and compiling an 18-14 regular season record. Gailey also has four stints as offensive coordinator in the NFL with Denver (1989-90), Pittsburgh (1996-97), Miami (2000-01) and Kansas City (2008).

With the Cowboys in 1998, Gailey became the first coach in NFC Eastern Division history to lead his team to a perfect 8-0 record in division play and a 10-6 overall record. Also in 1998, his Dallas squad ranked in the NFL's top 10 in total offense (eighth – 340.6 ypg), rushing (eighth – 125.9 ypg), scoring (ninth- 23.8 ppg) and passing (ninth – 214.8 ypg). He followed that with an 8-8 campaign in 1999 and his second consecutive playoff appearance.

In his two seasons as the Cowboys head coach, Dallas scored 37 rushing touchdowns, the fourth-highest total in the NFL over the two year timeframe.

Gailey's resume speaks for itself, he has spent 10 of his previous 16 NFL seasons as either a head coach or offensive coordinator. During those 10 seasons, his teams have made the playoffs seven times and boasted a 1,000-yard rusher on seven different occasions. In total, he has made playoff appearances in 11 of his 16 seasons in NFL coaching. His resume also boasts four Super Bowl berths, including one with Pittsburgh (XXX) and three with Denver (XXI, XXII and XXIV).

Gailey served as the head coach at Georgia Tech from 2002-07, becoming the first coach in school history to lead the Yellow Jackets to bowl appearance in his first six seasons. He compiled a 44-33 overall record and his squad averaged 199.3 rushing ypg, which led the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2007 and finished third in the conference in total offense with 384.9 ypg that season.

In 2006, the Yellow Jackets featured the Biletnikoff Award winner and number two overall draft pick in the 2007 NFL Draft in WR Calvin Johnson (Detroit). The ACC Player of the Year caught 78 passes for a single-season record 1,202 yards with 15 touchdown receptions, tying for second-most in the country.

A total of 46 Yellow Jackets coached by Gailey in his six seasons at Georgia Tech were either selected in the NFL's annual Draft Selection or were signed to a free-agent contract with an NFL team.

In 2008, Gailey returned to the NFL as the offensive coordinator with the Kansas City Chiefs. The Chiefs had a duo of 1,000-yard receivers - TE Tony Gonzalez and WR Dwayne Bowe - marking the third time in team history.

His coaching experience is so wide-ranging that it includes stints coaching defense and special teams, in addition to his success on the offensive side of the ball. In fact, he owns the distinction of serving as both a head coach and defensive coordinator on the collegiate level, as well as stints as a head coach and offensive coordinator in the NFL ranks.

Gailey began his NFL career as an assistant with the Denver Broncos from 1985-90 under head coach Dan Reeves. He served as offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach (1989-90), quarterbacks/wide receivers coach (1988), tight ends/special teams coach (1986-87) and defensive assistant/special teams coach (1985). During his six years in Denver, the Broncos developed into one of the league's most potent passing attacks centering around Hall of Fame signal-caller John Elway. With Gailey as the team's offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach in 1989, the Broncos advanced to Super Bowl XXIV.

In 1991, Gailey left the NFL to become the head coach of the Birmingham Fire of the World League of American Football, where his team made the playoffs in both years with him at the helm.

After a one-year stint as the head coach at Samford University, Gailey returned to the NFL as wide receivers coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1994-95, before being promoted to offensive coordinator (1996-97). During that four-year run alongside head coach Bill Cowher, the Steelers won four straight AFC Central crowns, appeared in three AFC Championship Games and earned a berth in Super Bowl XXX following the 1995 campaign.

During his tenure in Pittsburgh, he was credited with implementing the "Slash" offense that featured the skills of multi-talented QB Kordell Stewart. In 1996, Gailey's first season as offensive coordinator, Pittsburgh ranked second in the NFL in rushing, averaging 143.7 ypg. The following season the Steelers led the league in rushing with 154.9 ypg on the ground. During the 1997 season, Pittsburgh ranked sixth in the NFL in total offense (346.4 ypg) and was seventh in scoring (23.3 ppg). RB Jerome Bettis enjoyed the two most productive seasons of his career with Gailey as his offensive coordinator. Bettis tallied 1,431 rushing yards in 1996 and followed that up with a career-high 1,665 rushing yards in 1997.

The Americus, Georgia native served as offensive coordinator in Miami under head coach Dave Wannstedt from 2000-2001, when the Dolphins posted back-to-back 11-5 records and earned playoff berths each season. The Dolphins averaged 118.4 rushing ypg in 2000, the team's best output since 1984.

In total, Gailey has 14 years of head coaching experience, nine seasons in college, two seasons in the World League and three seasons in the NFL. His overall regular season record as a head coach is 102-76-1.

Prior to joining the NFL ranks, he served as the head coach at Troy State for two seasons (1983-84), where he led the Trojans to the NCAA Division II National Championship in 1984.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Dave Wannstedt brings 36 years of coaching experience with him in his first season as the Bills' Assistant Head Coach/Inside Linebackers. He spent the previous six years as the head coach at his alma mater the University of Pittsburgh.

- In 2009, Pittsburgh posted a 10-3 record marking the school's highest win total since 1981, including a 19-17 win over North Carolina in the Meineke Car Care Bowl... the team closed out the 2009 campaign with a No. 15 national ranking, Pittsburgh's highest since 1982.
- The Panthers recorded 19 wins from 2008-09, ranking as the second-highest win total in the Big East Conference
- Notable players under Wannstedt's tenure in Pittsburgh include 2007 first-round draft choice CB Darrelle Revis (New York Jets), 2008 first-round selection T Jeff Otah (Carolina Panthers) and 2009 second-round selection RB LeSean McCoy (Philadelphia Eagles).

Prior to re-joining his alma mater, Wannstedt spent 16 seasons in the NFL coaching ranks, including two head coaching stints (Miami Dolphins: 2000-04 and Chicago Bears: 1993-98).

As the head coach of the Dolphins from 2000-04, Wannstedt's team posted a 42-31 record including consecutive postseason appearances in his first two years. In 1999, Wannstedt joined the Dolphins' staff as defensive coordinator.

- In his first year as head coach of the Dolphins in 2000, Miami clinched the AFC East title with an 11-5 record... the defense ranked third in the NFL in points allowed with a franchise-low of 226 points and led the league with 28 interceptions... Wannstedt was named NFL Coach of the Year in 2000 by FOX's Terry Bradshaw (Terry's Awards).
- Wannstedt registered a 41-23 record from 2000-03 in Miami which tied for fifth among all NFL coaches in the four-year span... the Dolphins were one of three NFL teams from 2000-03 to win nine or more games each season.

Wannstedt was tabbed the head coach of the Chicago Bears in 1993. From 1993-98, he totaled 41 wins, finishing as the third-winningest coach in team history. In 1994, Wannstedt earned NFC Coach of the Year honors from UPI and Football News after guiding Chicago to its first playoff berth in three years. The Bears posted back-to-back winning seasons in 1994-95 and were the least-penalized team each season.

From 1989-92, Wannstedt was a member of the Dallas Cowboys' coaching staff. Before being elevated to Assistant Head Coach in 1992, he served as Defensive Coordinator from 1989-91. The Cowboys' defense led the league in total defense, yielding just 245.7 yards per game in 1992 en route to a 52-17 win over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVII. Inheriting a defense that ranked 20th in the league the year prior to his arrival, Wannstedt's squad led the league in defense in 1990 against the pass and 18th versus the run. He was tabbed The National's NFL Assistant Coach of the Year. In 1991, the Cowboys improved to ninth against the run as they made the playoffs for the first time since 1985.

Before joining the NFL ranks, Wannstedt spent 14 years on the college sidelines.

He helped guide the Miami Hurricanes to a 34-2 (.944) record from 1986-88 as the school's Defensive Coordinator. The Hurricanes advanced to three New Year's Day bowl games including the 1987 Fiesta Bowl and the Orange Bowl in 1988 and 1989. Miami captured the 1987 national title with a 12-0 record. Wannstedt's Hurricane defense held opponents to three-year averages of 2.2 yards per rush and 10.9 points per game. The defense produced 11 NFL draft selections, including five in the first two rounds.

Wannstedt spent the 1983-85 seasons at Southern California as the program's Defensive Line coach. The school earned two bowl appearances. In 1984, the Trojans captured the Pac 10 Title and a 20-17 Rose Bowl win over Ohio State while posting a top-10 finish with a 9-3 record.

Before joining USC, Wannstedt spent four years at Oklahoma State (1979-81 Defensive Line; 1982 Defensive Coordinator). The Cowboys earned their first bowl invite in five years in 1981 to the Independence Bowl.

He was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the 1974 Draft, but spent the season on Injured Reserve with a neck injury. Wannstedt returned to Pittsburgh as a graduate assistant from 1975-76 and the Panthers' Receivers/Special Teams coach from 1977-78. Pittsburgh captured the 1976 national title with a 12-0 record. The Panthers advanced to a bowl game in each of his four years on the coaching staff, capturing three wins and finished in the nation's top-15 three times and top-10 twice. From 1975-78, the school produced a 37-10-1 (.781) record.

PERSONAL

Wannstedt was a three-year starter at offensive tackle at Pitt from 1970-73. He captained the squad's 1973 Fiesta Bowl team and helped freshman RB Tony Dorsett rush for 1,686 rushing yards in '73. He was selected by Green Bay in the 1974 NFL Draft before a neck injury ended his pro aspirations. An all-state player at Baldwin High School, Wannstedt played in the Big 33 Classic all-star game. He also excelled at basketball and track and field in high school. Wannstedt and his wife Mary have two daughters, Keri and Jami.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

DeHaven enters his 15th season with the Bills in 2011. DeHaven returned to the Bills in 2010. He previously spent 1987-1999 as the team's special teams coordinator. Highlights from the 2010 season include ...

- Rookie CJ Spiller set a Bills rookie record for kick return yards in a game with 189 (including a 95-yard touchdown) at NE on 9/26/10; Spiller was also named AFC Special Teams player of the week.

Prior to re-joining the Bills, DeHaven served as special teams coach in the NFL with Seattle (2007-09), Dallas (2003-06), San Francisco (2000-02) and Buffalo (1987-99).

Under DeHaven's guidance from 2007-09, Seattle's special teams unit accomplished the following statistical marks:

- Averaged 25.3 yards per kickoff return in 2008, ranking second-best in the league... Josh Wilson set single-season Seattle records in kickoff returns (69) and kickoff return yards (1,753) while ranking second in the NFL with eight, 40-plus yard kickoff returns
- In his first year in Seattle, DeHaven's punt return schemes aided Nate Burleson to return one punt return and one kickoff return for a touchdown... with a 94-yard punt return at CLE, Burleson became the only player in NFL history to return three punts 90-plus yards for a touchdown in his career... also helped K Josh Brown to a career-year, setting career-highs in field goals made (28), points scored (127) and touchbacks (13)

Prior to joining Seattle, DeHaven spent four seasons with the Dallas Cowboys from 2003-06 where his special teams continued to shine.

- P Matt McBriar led the NFL with a 48.2 punting average in 2006, and ranked second in the NFC and fourth in the NFL with a 38.6 net punting average... PR Terence Newman was one of five NFC returners to average 10.0 or more yards per punt return
- In 2004, the Cowboys kickoff coverage unit ranked first in the league, holding opponents to an average of 17.5 yards per return
- OL Flozell Adams set a Cowboys team-record with three blocked extra point attempts in 2003... K Billy Cundiff tied the NFL record for the most field goals in a game with seven (9/15 at NYG) and Randal Williams returned an onside kickoff 37 yards for a touchdown to open the game vs. PHI (10/12)

DeHaven spent the 2000-02 seasons as the special teams coach in San Francisco. In 2002, return man Jimmy Williams finished first in the NFL with a 16.8 yard punt return average.

- In 2001, rookie Vinny Sutherland broke the team record for most kick return yards by a rookie with 1,140. DeHaven was also instrumental in helping P Jason Baker earn All-Rookie honors the same year.

Before his stop in San Francisco, DeHaven spent 13 seasons with the Buffalo Bills. During his tenure in Buffalo, the team made four consecutive Super Bowl appearances, won six AFC East championships and appeared in 20 playoff games. In his 13 years with the Bills, DeHaven helped develop two of the greatest special teams players in NFL history: Mark Pike and Steve Tasker. Tasker was invited to the Pro Bowl seven times as the AFC's Special Teams Player and was voted the 1993 Pro Bowl MVP. In 1998, K Steve Christie set the Bills' single-season club records for points (140) and field goals (33) and became the franchise's all-time leading scorer.

- In 1996, The Dallas Morning News, in a ranking of the 19 most important statistical categories, named Bills special teams unit the best in the NFL.
- His 1991 punt coverage unit led the league in fewest punt return yards allowed 53, (a then NFL record, broken by Atlanta in 2008, 51) the lowest total since the NFL changed the rules allowing only the ends to release on punt coverage before the ball is snapped.
- Guided Buffalo's kickoff coverage unit to the top of the NFL ranking four straight years (1987-90).

Prior to joining Buffalo, DeHaven spent three years in different coaching capacities in the USFL. He was the running backs and special teams coach with the Orlando Renegades (1985), special teams coach and offensive line coach for the Pittsburgh Maulers (1984) and special teams and assistant offensive line coach with the New Jersey Generals (1983).

DeHaven began his collegiate coaching career at Kansas (1979-81). With the Jayhawks, DeHaven worked with the defensive backs and offensive line as well as heading up recruiting. He served as offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at New Mexico State in 1982.

DeHaven began his career as a high school coach in Kansas. As an assistant at Southeast (Wichita, KS) from 1974-78, helped guide the school to three straight Kansas state football titles.

PERSONAL

DeHaven played eight-man football at Belpre-Trousdale (Trousdale, KS) High School... is a graduate of Southwestern College with a degree in history and political science... was a basketball standout at Southwestern, leading the team in scoring in two consecutive years... also participated in track and field... is a member of the Athletic Department's Hall of Fame... he and his wife, Kathy, have a son Tobin Scott and a daughter AnnieMaude.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

George Edwards enters his second season as the defensive coordinator with the Buffalo Bills. Edwards implemented the base 3-4 defense in 2010 , however the unit played out of multiple fronts throughout the season. Highlights from 2010 include ...

- The emergence of DT Kyle Williams who was named to his first pro bowl and produced career numbers in sacks (5.5) and fumble recoveries (2)
- Pass defense yielded 192.0 passing yards per game to rank third in the AFC
- Defense produced nine fumble recoveries to tie for fourth in the AFC; also produced 12 forced fumbles to tie for fifth in the AFC

Prior to joining the Bills, Edwards spent the 12 years in the NFL ranks, including the last five as a linebackers coach for the Miami Dolphins.

- In 2009, the Miami defense rated second in the AFC (fourth in the NFL) in third-down conversion rate, holding opponents to a 34.8 percent success rate (69-of-198). In addition, the Dolphins paced the NFL by recording a sack every 7.4 opponent pass plays, on average (44 sacks on 325 pass plays).
- In 2005, Edwards' first season tutoring the Dolphins' linebackers, Zach Thomas was selected to the Pro Bowl for the sixth time, as he recorded 166 tackles despite only playing in 14 games. Channing Crowder, a third-round draft choice, made a tremendous impact on the success of the defense as he started 13 games and registered 90 tackles, the highest total by a Dolphins rookie since 1996 (Thomas, 180).
- In 2006, Thomas was selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad once again, and Crowder recorded 104 tackles, the second-consecutive season in which the pair finished 1-2 on the team's tackle chart, respectively. Crowder was second on the club in 2008 with 114 tackles, marking a career best and also the second time that he attained the 100-tackle plateau.

Prior to going to Miami, Edwards spent 2004 as linebackers coach for the Cleveland Browns.

In 2003, Edwards was named the defensive coordinator for the Washington Redskins after serving as the assistant defensive coordinator/ linebackers coach the previous year.

- As Washington's defensive coordinator, Edwards helped LB LaVar Arrington and CB Champ Bailey earn Pro Bowl honors.
- In 2002, Arrington produced the most productive season of his NFL career with 107 tackles and 11 sacks and earned his second-straight Pro Bowl berth. In addition that year, each of the team's starting linebackers, which also included Jesse Armstead and Jeremiah Trotter, surpassed the 100-tackle plateau. Edwards began his NFL coaching career with a four-season stint with the Dallas Cowboys (1998-2001), where he tutored the team's linebackers.
- Under Edwards' guidance, Dexter Coakley, a third-round draft choice in 1997, was selected to the Pro Bowl twice over this four-year span (1999, 2001), as he was Dallas' second-leading tackler all four years.

Prior to his time in the pro ranks, Edwards spent seven years coaching at the college level, including stints at Georgia (1997- defensive line), Duke (1996- linebackers), Appalachian State (1992-95- linebackers) and Florida (1991- graduate assistant).

- During his one-year stint at Georgia, Edwards tutored a defensive line which included a pair of freshman in Richard Seymour and current Bills' DL Marcus Stroud, both of whom were selected in the first round of the 2001 NFL Draft.

PERSONAL

A native of Siler City, N.C., Edwards is a Duke University alumnus, where he was a four-year letterman and playing for former UF head coach Steve Spurrier. He was a two-year special teams' captain and an All-ACC honorable mention selection at linebacker in 1989. Edwards and his wife, Jami, have a son, B.J.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Modkins enters his second season with the Buffalo Bills in 2011. In 2010, Modkins guided the team's offensive attack. Buffalo was one of five AFC teams with a 3,000-yard passer and two players with 1,000 scrimmage yards (Stevie Johnson and Fred Jackson). Below is a list of other highlights from the Bills offense in 2010 …

- Buffalo's 4.3 rushing yards per carry average ranked tied for sixth in the AFC
- Jackson produced a career-best seven touchdowns (five rushing)
- Rookie CJ Spiller ranked third among NFL rookies with 1,629 yards (283 rushing, 157 receiving, 1,014 kick return)

Prior to joining the Bills, Modkins spent the 2009 season leading the Arizona Cardinals rushing attack to one of their most productive seasons in recent memory. Below is a list of some statistical highlights achieved by Arizona's rushing offense under Modkins:

- 1,494 rushing yards were the most the team has produced since 2004.
- 4.1 rushing yards per carry average was the highest since 2002.
- 16 rushing touchdowns ranked fifth in the NFC and produced the team's highest total since 1984 (21).
- Rookie RB Beanie Wells tied for first among rookies with seven rushing touchdowns and ranked second among rookies with 793 rushing yards. Also averaged 4.5 yards per carry to rank third among rookies
- Wells was selected to the all-rookie team by a number of national publications

Prior to breaking into the NFL as a running backs coach in 2008 with the Kansas City Chiefs, Modkins was named offensive coordinator at Colorado State but left shortly after for the opportunity in the NFL.

From 2002-07, he worked at Georgia Tech coaching defensive backs in 2002 and running backs from 2003-07. Below are a list of statistical highlights from his time at Georgia Tech:

- Rushing offense led the ACC with 2,591 rushing yards (199.3 per game) and 28 touchdowns
- RB P.J. Daniels (2003) and Tashard Choice (2006-07) led the ACC in rushing under Modkins tutelage. Both players developed into fourth-round NFL draft picks – Daniels 132nd overall to Baltimore in 2006 and Choice 122nd overall in 2008 to Dallas.

Modkins enjoyed a successful four-year tenure at New Mexico from 1998-2001 as the cornerbacks coach.

- New Mexico's defense ranked in the top 20 nationally in 2000 and 2001
- The team posted 15 interceptions in both 2000 and 2001 seasons

He started his coaching career at his alma mater TCU, where he served as a graduate assistant in 1995; secondary coach in 1996; tight ends coach in 1997.

Modkins interned in the NFL on three different occasions through the NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship program.

- 1997 with the Philadelphia Eagles (head coach Ray Rhodes)
- 1999 with the Dallas Cowboys (head coach Chan Gailey)
- 2005 with the Pittsburgh Steelers (head coach Bill Cowher)

PERSONAL

Modkins was a three-year starter for TCU and a led the Horned Frogs in rushing from 1990-92. … Finished his career third on the school's all-time rushing list with 2,763 yards and was twice named second team all-Southwest Conference … Earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 1993 and earned his M.L.A. degree in 1997 … he and his wife, Kristi, have four children – Ciera, Jett, Mariah and Dash.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Bicknell enters his second season as the Bills tight ends coach. He started his NFL coaching career in Kansas City in 2007. He served as assistant offensive line, offensive line and tight ends coach during his three seasons with the Chiefs.

Below is a list of Bicknell's coaching accomplishments with the Chiefs:

- In his first season as the offensive line coach in 2008, Bicknell led G Brian Waters back to Pro Bowl form as Waters was named an NFL all-star for the fourth time in his career and first time since 2006
- In 2008, coached an offensive line that paved the way for a rushing offense that ranked tied for first in the AFC (tied second in the NFL) in yards per carry at 4.8; the rushing offense improved from 3.3 in 2007 to 4.8 in 2008
- In 2008, he guided rookie T Branden Albert as he started 15 games at left tackle to anchor the Chiefs offensive line

In 2006, Bicknell served as the offensive line coach at Temple. He presided over a young blocking unit that featured sophomore C Alex Derenthal and redshirt freshman T Devin Tyler.

- Derenthal was named to the 2006 Eastern College Athletic Conference Division I-A Football All-Star Team in 2006 and became the first sophomore to be named Temple's Most Valuable Player.
- Tyler opened all 12 games at left tackle and was named honorable mention freshman All-America by The Sporting News.

Bicknell concluded a successful eight-year tenure in NFL Europe with a two-year stint as the offensive coordinator for the Cologne Centurions (2004-05).

- RB Kory Chapman ranked second in NFLEL with 718 rushing yards and 1,103 yards from scrimmage under Bicknell's direction in 2005.
- In his first season with Cologne, Bicknell helped QB Ryan Van Dyke top the league passing charts with 2,003 yards.

Bicknell served as the offensive coordinator for the final three seasons of a four-year tour of duty with the Berlin Thunder (2000-03).

- The club recorded a league-high 3,704 yards from scrimmage and led NFLEL with 2,667 passing yards in 2002 where current Chiefs G Brian Waters anchored the offensive line.
- Berlin won its second consecutive championship when it claimed a 26-20 victory over the Rhein Fire in World Bowl X.
- In his first season as offensive coordinator for Berlin, Bicknell oversaw a unit that paced the league with 2,189 passing yards, while ranking second with 3,243 yards from scrimmage.
- Berlin registered a 24-17 win vs. Barcelona in World Bowl IX. He originally joined the Thunder as offensive line coach in 2000.

Bicknell began his NFL Europe coaching career as an offensive line coach with the Frankfurt Galaxy ('98-99). The Galaxy won the World Bowl in '99 and also made the championship game in '98.

Bicknell embarked on his collegiate coaching career at Boston University in '93. He coached safeties in his first season with the Terriers under head coach Dan Allen.

- He coached the running backs in '94, tutoring RB Julian Dale, who was named the Yankee Conference Rookie of the Year.
- Bicknell coached linebackers under head coach Tom Masella from '95-97.

PERSONAL

Bicknell was a three-year letterman as a tight end at Boston College (BA '92). The Holliston, Massachusetts native comes from a football family. His father, Jack, served as the head coach of Boston College from '81-90 and spent 13 seasons as a head coach in NFL Europe before retiring in 2007 as the head coach of the Hamburg Sea Devils. Bicknell's brother, Jack, Jr., is the assistant offensive line coach for the N.Y. Giants. He and his wife, Stacey have two children, Gabriella and Grace.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Catavolos enters his sixth season with the Bills in 2011. He was retained by head coach Chan Gailey in 2010. He joined the franchise as a defensive backs coach in 2006.

Prior to coming to Buffalo in 2006, Catavolos held the same position with four other NFL clubs: Detroit (2004-05), Washington (2002-03), Indianapolis (1984-93; 1998-2001) and Carolina (1995-97).

Buffalo's secondary continues to produce productive seasons under Catavolos' leadership. In 2009, rookie FS Jairus Byrd recorded a club rookie record nine interceptions and earned a Pro Bowl berth. The Bills ranked first in the AFC last year with 28 interceptions, including 22 from the defensive backs.

Below are statistical feats accomplished by the Bills under Catavolos:

- In 2010, Buffalo's pass defense ranked third in the NFL allowing 192.0 passing yards per game. … under Catavolos's guidance, Buffalo's pass defense allowed just 38 20-plus yard passes which rated as tied for fourth in the NFL. … Buffalo's defense accounted for 10 interceptions in weeks nine-16. The 10 interception total ranked tied for the fifth best in the second half of 2010.
- Buffalo's pass defense ranked second in the NFL in passing yards per play (5.68), passing yards per game (184.3) and opponent passer rating (61.1) in 2009.
- In 2008, the secondary unit allowed the fourth-fewest touchdown passes in the NFL (14). Buffalo's pass defense (204.4) improved to 13th in 2008 compared to 29th in 2007. CB Jabari Greer, CB Terrence McGee, S Donte Whitner and rookie CB Leodis McKelvin made numerous game-changing plays for the Buffalo. Greer posted two interception-touchdowns on the season to tie for the second-most in the NFL. McGee led the team in passes defensed (21) and interceptions (3). Whitner posted a team-high three forced fumbles and added 63 tackles. McKelvin added two interceptions – including one returned for a touchdown as a rookie.
- In 2007, Catavolos led the secondary to a solid season as a number of players gained on-the-job experience while the team overcame numerous injuries (four defensive backs were placed on injured reserve). CB Terrence McGee led the team with four interceptions and ranked third in the NFL with 25 passes defensed. Catavolos led the transition of former WR George Wilson to free safety and Wilson started nine games at the position. CB Jabari Greer started a career-high 13 games. Second-year strong safety Donte Whitner ranked third on the team in tackles with 102.
- In 2006, the Bills defensive backs enjoyed a standout season in their first season working with the long-time coaching veteran. The Bills ranked 1st in the NFL yielding just 10.14 yards per completion and ranked No. 3 allowing 6.40 yards per pass attempt. Buffalo ranked 6th in the NFL in passing net yards per play and 7th in passing net yards per game. Catavolos was influential in the development of the NFL's only starting rookie safety tandem in 2006 – Donte Whitner and Ko Simpson. Whitner was awarded the NFL's defensive rookie of the month award in September and selected to the NFL All-Rookie team. Whitner made 14 starts and Simpson posted 15.

Other career highlights for Catavolos include having a defensive back participate in three consecutive Pro Bowls from 2003-05 (Dré Bly 2005, Champ Bailey 2004, 2003)…

From 1995-97, Catavolos served as the Carolina Panthers defensive backs coach and helped CB Eric Davis reach the Pro Bowl in 1996. In the same season, the Panthers advanced to the NFC Championship game in only their second year in the NFL.

Catavolos' NFL coaching career started in 1984 when he was hired as the defensive backs coach of the Indianapolis Colts, a position he held through the 1993 season.

PERSONAL

A three-year letter winner at Purdue as a defensive back, Catavolos was the Boilermakers' co-captain during the team's 1967 Rose Bowl Championship season…received a bachelor's degree in physical education from Purdue in 1967, and was the recipient of the Nobel E. Kizer award for excellence in academics during his senior year. He went on to earn his master's degree in education and administration in 1969… Catavolos and his wife, Tona, have two daughters, Lindsay and Stephanie.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Cortez made his NFL coaching debut in 2010 after spending more than 30 years of coaching in the Canadian Football League and NCAA college ranks.

In 2010, Cortez helped veteran QB Ryan Fitzpatrick produce his best season in the NFL.

- Fitzpatrick set career highs in attempts (441), completions (255), yards (3,000), touchdowns (23) and passer rating (81.8).
- He also set career highs for passing yards in a game (383 at Baltimore 10/24/10), passing touchdowns (4 twice last at Cincinnati 11/21/10) and completions (31 vs. Chicago 11/7/10).
- Cortez also helped Fitzpatrick rank 10th in NFL (5th in the AFC) with a 5.2 touchdown passing percentage.
- Fitzpatrick was also very efficient on third down also post a 93.2 rating to rank fourth in the AFC in the category.

Prior to joining the Bills, Cortez spent a total of 18 seasons as a coach in the Canadian Football League – including 11 with the Calgary Stampeders. Below is a list of his CFL coaching highlights:

- Spent 11 seasons with Calgary, two in Ottawa, four in Montreal and one with Saskatchewan
- Has won four Grey Cup championships with Calgary as an assistant coach (1992, 1998, 2001 and 2008)
- In 2008, Calgary led the CFL in fewest passes intercepted and ranked second in the CFL in points scored, total offense, average offense per game, first downs, rushing yards, and rushing yards per game; QB Henry Burris earned Grey Cup MVP honors accouting for 443 yards of total offense in the championship game
- From 1998-2001, helped developed quarterbacks Jeff Garcia and Dave Dickenson in the Calgary offense; In 1998, with Garcia Calgary's offense led the CFL in 10 statistical categories; In 2000, Dickenson was named the CFL's Most Outstanding Player and Calgary's offense ranked first or second in the CFL in seven offensive categories

Cortez also spent four years as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at the University of California-Berkley from 2002-2005.

- Aided in the development of first round NFL Draft Picks Aaron Rodgers and Kyle Boller
- Played a prominent role in Cal's offense posting three of the four highest scoring seasons in school history over the 2002-04 seasons. Helped Cal claim Pac-10 rushing titles in 2003 and 2004 – the first time the Bears led the conference in rushing since 1958
- In 2004, Cal's offense was one of the most balanced and prolific units in the nation – averaging 492.4 yards per game (No. 5 in the nation), 256.8 yards rushing (No. 6 in the nation), and 36.8 points per game (No. 7 in the nation)

Cortez has experience coaching the offensive and defensive lines, defensive backs, running backs and special teams throughout his coaching career. From 1992-94 when Cortez was Calgary's offensive line coach, the team allowed the fewest sacks in the CFL during that time span. In 1992, Bruce Coventon became the first offensive lineman to win the Jackie Parker Trophy as the Western Division's Rookie of the Year.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

D'Alessandris is entering his second season with the Buffalo Bills. Buffalo made significant personnel moves throughout the 2010 season which hopes to pay dividends for the unit moving forward. 2010 observations include.

- The Bills featured seven different offensive line combinations in 2010
- Two linemen – left tackle Demetrius Bell and left guard Andy Levitre – started all 16 games in 2010.
- The line was instrumental in helping the rushing offense rank tied for sixth in the AFC with 4.3 rushing yards per carry average.
- Line allowed just 34 sacks in 2010 to rank 15th in the NFL, 12 less than the 2009 total

Prior to joining the Bills, D'Alessandris spent 2008-09 as the Chiefs assistant offensive line coach. G Brian Waters participated in the 2009 Pro Bowl after working with D'Alessandris and the Kansas City coaching staff. In 2009, the Chiefs offensive line helped pave the way to RB Jamaal Charles's first 1,000-yard rushing season (1,120 yards).

Prior to joining Kansas City, he spent 2002-07 as the offensive line coach for Georgia Tech. Below is a list of some of his accomplishments achieved by Georgia Tech's offense under D'Alessandris:

- Offensive line paved the way for one of the ACC's most prolific rushing attacks
- Rushing offense produced a ACC-high 2,591 rushing yards (199.3 yards per game)
- Offensive line helped RBs P.J. Daniels (2003) and Tashard Choice (2006-07) to lead the ACC in rushing
- In 2005, offensive line led the ACC in fewest sacks allowed with 10.0; offense also ranked third in rushing in the ACC; T Nat Dorsey and C Hugh Reilly earned first team All-ACC honors
- Five linemen who played under D'Alessandris spent time on an NFL roster

D'Alessandris coached the Duke offensive line from 1997-2001 where five linemen went on to the NFL. He also spent one-year stints at the University of Pittsburgh (1996) and Texas A&M (1994). A&M finished the season 10-0-1 and averaged 172.0 yards rushing in 1994.

D'Alessandris also has experience coaching in the CFL (Ottawa Rough Riders – 1990 and Memphis Mad Dogs – 1995). D'Alessandris and Coach Gailey first began working together in the World League with the Birmingham Fire (1991-92). They also worked together in 1993 with Samford where D'Alessandris served as the assistant head coach/offensive line coach. D'Alessandris also coached at UT-Chattanooga, Memphis, Livingston University and began his coaching career at Western Carolina University.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Daye enters his second season in the NFL as Buffalo's Assistant to the Head Coach. In 2011, Daye will assist Dave Wannstedt in coaching the inside linebackers. He will also assist in coaching special teams. Daye will also continue to be responsible for assisting Head Coach Chan Gailey in the team's day-to-day administrative operation as well as numerous travel and training camp duties.

Daye owns 24 years of collegiate coaching experience and spent the previous four years (2006-09) at Missouri Southern State as the school's defensive coordinator, special teams and linebackers coach.

- In 2008, the Lions led the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association in pass defense and junior LB Jared Brawner was an All-MIAA, All-Region and All-American selection after leading the conference in tackles (120)… the defense held opponents to 172 passing yards per game, posted 58 tackles for a loss, totaled 15 sacks and recovered all 15 fumbles the team forced
- The Lions produced their first winning season for the first time in 12 years in 2007 and led the MIAA in defense for the first time in school history… Missouri Southern's defense ranked 21st nationally in total defense and broke a 17-year old Division II school record with 21 interceptions

Prior to Missouri Southern State, Daye served as special teams coach for Southern University in 2005. In 2005, his punt return unit led the nation with 19.1 yards per punt return in and the kickoff return squad ranked ninth nationally at 22.4 yards per return average.

From 1999-2003, Daye served as the head coach at Nicholls State.

- In 2003, Nicholls State football broke 32 school records and played for the first ever Southland Conference Championship
- Daye was tabbed the 2002 Southland Conference Coach of the Year after leading the Colonels to a four-win turnaround, finishing the year 7-4 and a top 25 Division I-AA ranking
- In 2001, Daye guided Nicholls State to the school's first ever win over Division I-A foe Arkansas Sate

Before joining Nicholls State, Daye held an assistant coach position at Liberty University from 1991-96 under former Cleveland Browns and two-time NFL Coach of the Year Sam Rutigliano and was elevated to defensive coordinator for the 1997 and 1998 campaigns.

- In his first year as defensive coordinator at Liberty in 1997, the defense led the nation (I-AA) in turnovers with 40, ranked second in turnover margin (1.82) and held opponents to 17.7 points per game, the best mark in school history over the previous 15 years… Liberty closed out the season with a 9-2 record and ranked 17th nationally

Prior to coaching at Liberty, Daye was a member of Southern Mississippi's coaching staff for two years from 1989-90 where Brett Favre was the school's quarterback. The Golden Eagles made a postseason appearance in the 1990 All American Bowl.

Daye's coaching career began at Louisiana State in 1986, where he worked under and also played for Bill Arnsparger 'the architect of the Miami Dolphins' No-Name Defense' in the early 1970s. He then coached for two years under Mike Archer. Initially, Daye arrived at LSU as a walk-on player, later earning a scholarship and lettered at inside linebacker.

While at LSU, Daye was a member of two Southeastern Conference Championships and a member of five teams that went to bowl games either as a player or coach. The Tigers represented the SEC as the league champions in the 1985 and 1987 Sugar Bowl, while also appearing in the 1983 Orange Bowl, 1985 Liberty Bowl, 1988 Gator Bowl and the 1989 Hall of Fame Bowl.

PERSONAL

Daye was a two-time All-State performer at Huntington (Ferriday, La.) High School and earned a bachelor's degree in general studies from Louisiana State in 1986, adding a master's degree in physical education from Southern Mississippi in 1990. He is married to the former Kathy Polko, also a LSU graduate and a letterwinner in gymnastics. Daye's father, Donnie, was a member of the 1958 national championship LSU squad as a fullback/linebacker and coached for over 13 years. His mom, Penny, was a feature majorette for the University of Missouri.

Stan Hixon is entering his second season with the Buffalo Bills. In 2010, Hixon helped WR Stevie Johnson breakout on the NFL scene. Johnson posted career highs and led the Bills in the following categories – receptions (82), receiving yards (1,073), and touchdowns (10). Below is a list of other 2010 highlights ...

- Johnson ranked tied for seventh in the NFL in touchdown receptions; he ranked second in the NFL in third down receiving yards; ranked tied for fourth in the NFL with 61 first down receptions; among NFL players with 70 or more receptions,74.4 of his receptions resulted in first downs (third highest % in the NFL); he was the fourth WR in team history to post 1,000 yards and 10 touchdowns
- Guided Roscoe Parrish to produce a career year with 400 receiving yards and tying a career high with two touchdowns despite missing the final eight games of the season with an injury.
- Helped develop three rookie undrafted free agent wide receivers who saw time on the Bills roster – David Nelson, Donald Jones and Naaman Roosevelt; Nelson ranked seventh among NFL rookies with 31 receptions; Nelson was the third rookie in team history to catch a touchdown in three consecutive games (weeks 13-15).

Hixon joined the Bills' staff on February 1, 2010 as wide receivers coach. He spent the previous six seasons as the Redskins wide receivers coach. In 31 years of coaching on both the college and professional level, Hixon has developed outstanding talent at the wide receiver position.

In Washington he guided a veteran unit, led by WR Santana Moss and WR Antwaan Randle El. Randle El's four receiving touchdowns in 2009 set a career high.

- Under Hixon's tutelage in 2008, WR Santana Moss had 79 receptions for 1,044 yards and six touchdowns. This marked the third 1,000 yard receiving season of Moss's career, and his second with 75 or more catches.
- Also in 2008, WR Antwaan Randle El recorded 53 receptions for 593 yards and four touchdowns.
- Hixon guided Moss to a breakout season in 2005 that ended with his first trip to the Pro Bowl. Moss set a new Redskins franchise record with 1,483 receiving yards on the season, surpassing the previous mark held by Hall of Famer Bobby Mitchell (1,436). Moss also led the team in receptions (84) and average yards per catch (17.7) and was second with nine touchdowns. He finished second in the NFL in receiving yards and sixth in the NFC and 10th in the NFL in receptions. Moss was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week twice after remarkable performances at Dallas (five catches, 159 yards, two fourth-quarter TD catches) and home against the New York Giants (five catches, 160 yards, three TDs).

Prior to joining the Redskins, Hixon coached four years at LSU (2000-03). He coached eight players at the college level that have gone on to careers in the NFL, including Josh Reed, Robert Brooks (GB and DEN), Kelly Campbell (MIN, MIA and TB), Michael Clayton (TB), Devery Henderson (NO), Skyler Green (DAL, CIN and NO), Eddie Miller (IND) and Dez White (CHI and ATL).

- He served as associate head coach in addition to wide receivers coach and was part of the Tigers' 2003 NCAA National Championship team.
- He coached players to three 1,000-yard seasons and had a player named first-team All-SEC three times.
- Under Hixon's guidance, Clayton became the fifth 1,000-yard receiver in LSU history and the second under Hixon. In 2003, Clayton set the school's all-time mark for career touchdown receptions with 21. That year, Clayton, Henderson and Green combined for 171 catches for 2,374 yards and 26 touchdowns.
- In 2001, Hixon coached Reed to one of the most dominating seasons ever by a receiver in SEC history. Reed caught a school-record 94 passes for an SEC-record 1,740 yards and seven touchdowns. He was named an All-American and won the Fred Biletnikoff Award, given to college football's top wide receiver. Reed completed his three-year college career, two of which were coached by Hixon, with a then-SEC record 3,001 receiving yards on 167 receptions.

Prior to LSU, Hixon coached wide receivers at Georgia Tech (1995-99), developing a pair of All-ACC receivers in Campbell and White. He previously coached running backs for two seasons at Wake Forest (1993-94). Hixon served as wide receivers coach at South Carolina (1989-92), producing All-Americans Brooks and Miller, and at Appalachian State (1983-88). He began his college coaching career overseeing running backs at Morehead State (1980-82).

PERSONAL

Hixon was a standout receiver at Iowa State. He starred in the Peach Bowl in 1977 and the Hall of Fame Bowl in 1978. Hixon is a native of Lakeland, Fla. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Iowa State and earned his master's degree at Morehead State. Hixon and his wife, Rebecca, have three children: son Drew and daughters Adele and Avis.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Bobby Johnson enters his second season with the Buffalo Bills in 2011. Johnson assists in all aspects of coaching the offensive line group and works specifically on the development of the group's younger players.

Prior to joining the Bills, Johnson spent five years as the offensive line coach at Indiana University. At Indiana, Johnson developed Rodger Saffold (2010 2nd round selection to the St. Louis Rams) and James Brewer (2011 4th round selection to the NY Giants).

During Johnson's tenure, the Hoosiers posted some of the top offensive numbers in school history.

- Indiana broke the 2,000-yard rushing mark (2,003 yards - sixth in the Big Ten- in 2008) for two consecutive seasons (2007 and 2008). The first time since 2000 and 2001 an IU team produced back-to-back 2,000-yard rushing seasons.
- In 2008, IU averaged 4.5 yards per carry and tallied 19 rushing scores, its best numbers since 2001 (5.5, 33). Indiana rushed for over 250 yards four times with a season-best 297 yards in the season-opening win over Western Kentucky.

What makes these numbers more impressive is the shuffling that took place on the line due to injuries. The Hoosiers used seven different starting lineups and nine total players, including three players receiving their first career action.

Johnson's leadership helped the 2007 Indiana offensive line put together one of the best seasons in recent memory.

- IU posted 157.4 yards per game on the ground and 393.8 yards of total offense, the highest averages in each category since the 2001 campaign. Indiana improved its rush total from the 2006 season by 43.6 yards per ballgame.
- The IU rushing attack went over 100 yards nine times and over 200 yards on five occasions.
- Guard John Sandberg earned All-Big Ten honorable mention from the coaches for his role in the offense's success.
- During the 2006 season, Johnson worked with the "seven blocks of limestone" - the nickname given to the seven incoming freshmen on the offensive line - and saw two of them (Pete Saxon and Rodger Saffold) earn multiple starts for the Hoosiers.
- In 2005, Johnson worked with current Cleveland Brown Isaac Sowells, who participated in the East-West Shrine Game in San Antonio and later became a fourth-round draft pick by Cleveland.

Johnson, who was one of five assistant coaches who went to Indiana from Miami (OH), played an integral role in the Red Hawks' balanced offense in 2004, as Miami averaged 125.2 yards per game on the ground and 282.8 yards through the air.

- During Johnson's five-year tenure, MU was 36-5 when it outrushed the opposition.
- Johnson worked with eventual NFL draft picks Jacob Bell (fifth round, Tennessee Titans, 2004) and Alex Sulfsted (sixth round, Kansas City Chiefs, 2001) and free-agent signees Matt Brandt (Detroit Lions, 2004) and Ben Herrell (Carolina Panthers, 2004).

A former Miami offensive tackle who returned to his alma mater in 1999, Johnson spent four years at the University of Akron, two as a graduate assistant (1995-96) and two as the Zips' defensive line coach (1997-98). From 1999-2003, Johnson served as Miami's tight ends coach.

Upon graduating from Miami with a degree in health appraisal and sport organization in 1995, Johnson signed on as a graduate assistant with the Akron football staff.

- During his two years as a graduate assistant, Johnson assisted with a defensive line that included NFL star Jason Taylor. Johnson was named the Zips' defensive line coach in 1997.

During his playing career, Johnson was a three-year starter on the offensive line from 1992-94. In his sophomore and senior seasons, Miami finished 6-4-1 overall and 5-3 in the MAC. Johnson played an integral blocking role for Deland McCullough for three years. McCullough, a two-time first team All-MAC selection, broke the league's all-time rushing mark and currently ranks second on the MAC and Miami charts behind Travis Prentice.

PERSONAL

Johnson was a standout at Akron Hoban High School, where he was honored as Ohio's UPI Division III Lineman of the Year in 1991. He earned first team All-Ohio, first team all-district, All-Summit County, all-city and all-scholastic recognition. Johnson also lettered as a member of Hoban's track team. Bobby and his wife, Kristen, have two daughters, Madilyn (12), and Olivia (9).

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Kevin Patullo enters his second season with the Bills as offensive quality control coach. Patullo also works with the wide receivers and assisted in the development of the team's young receiving corps in 2010. He coordinates the club's offensive self-scouting duties and is responsible for computer analysis, statistical and video breakdowns of opponents on a weekly basis.

Patullo spent 2007-08 with the Kansas City Chiefs as an offensive assistant/quality control. He also worked with the wide receivers and helped tutor Dwayne Bowe to his first 1,000-yard season in 2008 (1,022 receiving yards). In 2007, Bowe led all NFL rookies in receptions (70) and receiving yards (995). Prior to joining the Chiefs, Patullo served three years (2004-06) as an offensive graduate assistant working under head coach Mike Stoops at the University of Arizona. Patullo worked closely with the quarterbacks and helped tutor QB Willie Tuitama, who was named Pac 10 Freshman of the Year and earned Freshman All-America honors.

Patullo created the offensive call sheet and was responsible for opponent scouting and offensive breakdown. He also assisted with the special teams game plan and on-field coaching.

Patullo started his coaching career with a two-year stint at South Florida. With the Bulls, Patullo served as the offensive graduate assistant. He conducted advance scouting and assisted with the team's wide receivers and special teams units.

PERSONAL

Patullo was a three-year letterwinner at South Florida, seeing time at both quarterback and wide receiver. Patullo won the Golden Bull Award in '99 as the program's outstanding scout team player and was a four-time Academic All-Conference USA selection. The Hillsborough, NJ native earned his B.S. from the University of South Florida (2003) and his M.A. from University of Arizona in 2006. Patullo enjoyed a successful prep career at Western High School in Weston, Florida. He suffered a broken leg prior to his senior season, but returned to play in the final two games of the year. He was selected to play in the Dade-Broward County All-Star Game in '98. He is married; wife Nichole and they have a daughter Lauren.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Sanders enters his third season with the Buffalo Bills in 2011 and will continue to coach the outside linebackers for the second consecutive season. The 2010 season highlights included …

- The transition of OLB Chris Kelsay from defensive end; Kelsay produced 72 tackles and ranked second on the team with 3.5 sacks
- The emergence of rookie OLB Arthur Moats who led team rookies with 2.5 sacks

In 2010, Sanders was retained by Head Coach Chan Gailey. He originally joined the Bills' coaching staff as the defensive line coach in late January of 2009, bringing 33 years of coaching experience with him.

Prior to arriving in Buffalo, Sanders served on the Green Bay Packers staff for four seasons (2005-08), the last three as the team's defensive coordinator while coaching defensive ends in 2005.

- In 2009, the Packers led the NFL with six interceptions returned for touchdowns and tied for the NFC lead with 22 picks
- Green Bay finished third in the NFL in third-down defense in 2007
- The Packers' defense ranked first in the NFC with 46 sacks while earning a fifth-best overall defensive ranking in the NFC in 2006. Upon taking the coordinator position, Sanders brought continuity to a defense that ranked seventh overall and first against the pass in 2005, up from 25th in both categories the previous season.
- In his first year in Green Bay in 2005, Packers DE Aaron Kampman recorded a then-career-best 6.5 sacks and at the time the second-most tackles (105) by a Green Bay defensive lineman ever recorded. On the other side, Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila posted a career-high 81 tackles in 2005.

Sanders served as the Miami Dolphins' linebackers coach for four seasons (2001-04).His individual tutoring helped Zach Thomas to three straight Pro Bowl selections (2001-2003) and, at the time, four of his top five single-season tackle totals.

Before joining the professional ranks, Sanders coached 22 years in the college game, including 15 seasons tutoring defensive linemen in some capacity. Seven of those campaigns were at the University of Florida, where three of his pupils, Jevon Kearse, Kevin Carter and Huey Richardson, became first-round selections in the NFL Draft.

- The Gators led the SEC in sacks four straight seasons (1996-99) in Sanders' 11 years with Florida (1990-2000). He coached multiple defensive positions as the Gators captured five conference titles and the 1995 National Championship.

Prior to his time at Florida, Sanders spent five years at Duke. In his last season with the Blue Devils, 1989, the squad went 8-4 and won the school's first ACC Championship since 1965.

Previously, Sanders had served at Richmond (1983-84), East Carolina (1980-82) and Georgia Tech (part-time coach, 1978)…he also coached three years (1976-77, 1979) in the high school ranks.

PERSONAL

A former defensive player at Davidson College (1973-75), Sanders graduated from the school in 1976 with a B.S. degree in political science… born in Jacksonville, N.C., he and his wife, Kathie, have two daughters, Lindsay and Sarah, and a son, Robby…in his spare time he enjoys fishing and playing golf.

Chuck Cook was named Director of College Scouting of the Buffalo Bills on May 11th, 2011. Cook's responsibilities will focus on assisting the team in the preparation of the draft and will assist General Manager Buddy Nix and Assistant General Manager Doug Whaley in the day-to-day operation of the football department.

Cook joined the Bills after spending the previous three years with the Miami Dolphins as a Regional Scout, focusing on the Southwest region in the Dolphins' system.

Prior to his stint with Miami, Cook spent 11 years as the Director of College Scouting for the Kansas City Chiefs. In his role as Director of College Scouting, Cook was in charge of coordinating the team's college scouting and preparation for the annual NFL Draft after being promoted to the position in May of 1997. He spent 13 years as a regional scout in the Chiefs' system, focusing primarily on the Southeastern region.

Cook joined the NFL ranks in 1984, when he was originally hired by the Chiefs after serving as an offensive assistant with the USFL's Arizona Wranglers (1982-83). He began his coaching career at the University of Wyoming from 1980-81.

Cook starred as a wide receiver, running back and defensive back at Southern Mississippi and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 1993. Following his collegiate career, he was a member of training camps with the New York Giants and New York Jets before embarking on his off-field career. He followed the path of his father, Hamp, who served as a scout for the New Orleans Saints for many years.

A native of Andalusia, AL, Cook earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Southern Mississippi. He and his wife, Carla, have twin daughters, Carley and Cori, and a son Colby.

Tom Gibbons was named Director of Pro Personnel of the Buffalo Bills on May 11th, 2011. Gibbons is responsible for the day-to-day operation of the Pro Department and will assist General Manager Buddy Nix and Assistant General Manager Doug Whaley with the day-to-day operation of the football staff.

Gibbons re-joined the Bills after spending the previous seven years with the San Diego Chargers as a college scout, evaluating players in the Northeast region of the country.

From 1995-2003, Gibbons served as a college and pro scout with the Buffalo Bills after joining the team in 1992 as an administrative assistant in scouting.

Prior to entering the NFL with Buffalo, Gibbons was a graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh from 1990-91.

A graduate and four-year letterwinner as both a linebacker and tight end at Indiana (PA) University, Gibbons joined the Indians' staff as a tight ends coach in 1989.

A native of Dunkirk, NY, he and his wife, Kristin, have two sons, E.J. and Thomas, and reside in Hamburg, NY.

Paul Lancaster is entering his 11th season with the Bills after joining the franchise on June 12, 2001.

Lancaster works closely with Bills players while overseeing the areas of continuing education, family assistance, financial planning and post-football career development. In his role as Director of Player Programs, Lancaster serves as the team's liaison with the NFL's Player Development Department.

Prior to joining the Bills, Lancaster worked at Penn State University and California University of Pennsylvania. Lancaster, a Brownsville, PA native, received his degree in Psychology from California University of Pennsylvania where he also played basketball. In 1998, he earned his master's degree in Counseling from California (PA).

Lancaster and his wife, Janine, have three sons: P.J., Hunter and Tristan.

The 2011 season will mark Doug Majeski's 10th year as Coordinator of College Scouting with the Bills after serving as an Area Scout from May of 1992 – 2002.

Majeski originally joined the Bills in 1989 where his duties included assisting the coaching staff with game analysis, self-scouting and assisting in coordinating training camp. In 1992, he was named the team's BLESTO scout representative before being elevated to Regional Scout from 1993 - 1994.

A four-year letterman at the University of Buffalo and a three-year starter, Majeski earned first-team All-America honors in 1986 and served as a team captain in 1987. Majeski earned his bachelor's degree in Sports Management and Exercise Science from Buffalo.

He and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Elma, NY with their son, Matthew, and daughter, Lauren.

Darrell Moody enters his second season with the Bills after joining the team in May 2010 as a National Scout after spending the previous eight seasons with the San Diego Chargers as a College Scout, covering the Southeast region.

Prior to joining San Diego in 2002, Moody accumulated 31 years of coaching experience at the collegiate and high school levels. In the collegiate ranks he held coaching positions at North Carolina State (1973-74, 76-79, 97), Southern Mississippi (1975), LSU (1980-83), Appalachian State (1984), Tulane (1985-87), North Carolina (1988-95, 98-00) and Clemson (1996). Moody also coached at Asheboro (NC) High School (1971-72) and served as Offensive Coordinator at Eastern Randolph (Ramseur, NC) High School in 2001.

A native of Asheboro, NC, Moody played quarterback at North Carolina State from 1968-70 where he earned a degree in economics and a master's in vocational education.

His wife of 38 years, Martha, passed away in October 2007, two months shy of their 39th wedding anniversary. She is survived by Darrell and the couple's two sons, Chris and Michael. Darrell resides in Chapel Hill, N.C.

Brian Fisher is entering his fifth season with the Bills after joining the team in July of 2007. Fisher serves as an Area Scout where he covers the Midwest region of the country.

Fisher earned his bachelor's degree in Finance from Oakland University in 2002. At Clawson (MI) High School, Fisher played football.

He and his wife, Nicole, live in Michigan with their son Benjamin, and daughter Grace.

Brad Forsyth was elevated to Area Scout for the Bills in May of 1995 after spending the 1994 season as an Administrative Assistant in the Scouting department. In his first year with the team, he also assisted in coordinating training camp.

Forsyth originally joined the Bills as an intern in the Scouting department in 1992 and stayed there through the 1993 season.

Forsyth, a four-year letterman at Illinois Wesleyan University in Bloomington, IL, made the transition from wide receiver to quarterback where he started for two years, serving as team captain. He remains as the school's current record holder in single-season (62.9%) and career (62.1%) completion percentage and ranked second in the nation in Division III passing efficiency during his senior year while earning second-team All-Conference honors.

Upon earning his degree in Business Administration in 1990, Forsyth served as a Graduate Assistant at Illinois Wesleyan from 1991 – 1992 where he was in charge of the receivers. He earned his master's degree in Sports Administration from Illinois State in 1993.

A three-sport athlete at Paxton (IL) High School, his father, Clint, was the school's football coach and finished as the state runner-up in 1984 and advanced to the quarterfinals in 1985.

Forsyth and his wife, Kandiss, reside in Littleton, CO with their daughters Kaedyn and Kamryn.

Matt Hand enters his second year as an Area Scout, covering primarily the western region. Hand served three years as the team's BLESTO scout representative after two years as the team's College Scouting Administrator from July 2005 – June 2007.

Prior to joining the Bills' college scouting department in 2005, Hand served as an training camp intern in the Player Personnel department for the Bills in 2004.

As a student at the University of Southern Mississippi, Hand worked as a student assistant for the school's football team from 2002 – 2004 and as a Graduate Assistant from 2004-2005. Hand aided in head coach Jeff Bowers' streak of 14 consecutive winning seasons.

Hand earned his master's degree in Science from the University of Southern Mississippi in 2005 and a bachelor's degree in Science in 2003 from Southern Mississippi. He also received an Associate's degree in Arts from Grand Rapids CC in 2001.

Hand was a three-sport athlete at Chelsea (MI) High School and resides in Kansas City, MO.

Shawn Heinlen is entering his 11th season with the Bills and ninth as an Area Scout since being elevated to the position in May of 2003. From July 2001 – May 2003, Heinlen was the team's College Scouting Administrator and served as a training camp intern in 1999 and 2000.

Prior to coming to Buffalo, Heinlen was a Player Personnel Analyst with the NFL at the League Office.

Heinlen earned his master's degree in Sports Administration from the University of Florida in 1998 after receiving a bachelor's degree in Finance in 1997. At Florida, Heinlen served as a student assistant for the Gators football team. Prior to transferring to Florida, Heinlen played quarterback at North Central College in Naperville, IL.

Heinlen was a two-sport athlete at Jupiter (Jupiter, FL) High School. He and his wife, Missy, have a son, Colton, and reside in Frisco, TX.

Tom Roth enters his fifth year as an Area Scout with the Bills after serving as the team's BLESTO scouting representative from May 2005 – May 2007.

Roth held the position of College Scouting Administrator for the Bills from July 2003 – May 2005 and was an intern in the Player Personnel department at training camp in 2000.

Prior to joining Buffalo in 2003, Roth worked in the Player Personnel department at the NFL League Office from February 2001 – June 2003.

Roth earned his bachelor's degree from Bowling Green State University in 1999 and also assisted the football team during the 1994 and 1995 seasons. A two-sport athlete at Lake Catholic (Mentor, OH) High School, Roth currently resides in Charlotte, NC.

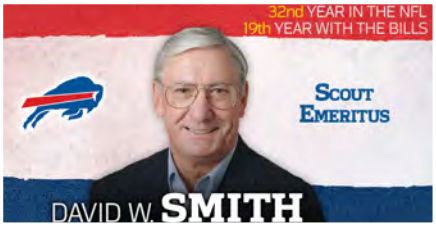
David G. Smith is entering his 33rd season assisting with talent evaluation for the Bills. Smith joined the Bills in 1979 after serving as a part-time scout with the Oakland Raiders.

A life member of the American Football Coaches Association, Smith was a highly successful high school coach in Michigan where he won 12 conference championships and compiled a 113-36 record in 17 years with stints at Walled Lake, Ferndale and Royal Oak Kimball.

In 1966, Smith moved to the collegiate coaching ranks at Michigan State where he worked with the linebackers and receivers during his six-year tenure with the Spartans. Smith was named head coach at Ferris State (Big Rapids, MI) in 1972 and registered a 5-5 record. He joined the newly-formed Detroit Wheels of the WFL in 1973 as an assistant and remained until the team's demise. Smith returned to high school coaching following.

Smith, a graduate of Michigan State where he also earned his master's degree, played on two Spartan clubs that went to the Rose Bowl. Smith spent four years in the U.S. Army from 1948 – 1952.

He and his wife, Judy, reside in Boyne City, MI and have three children: Steve, Craig and Kim.



David W. Smith is entering his 20th season as an Area Scout with the Bills and covers the Western region.

Smith originally joined the Bills in June of 1992, bringing 12 years of pro scouting experience to the staff. His scouting career began with the New Orleans Saints from 1967-69 before a five-year stint with the Houston Oilers from 1970-74. Prior to joining the Bills in 1992, Smith was in private business from 1975-86.

Smith played five seasons from 1960-64 with the Oilers and was named the top fullback on the first All-AFL team in 1960. Smith was the 21st pick of the Green Bay Packers in 1959, but was released after spending nine weeks in legendary Vince Lombardi's first training camp. An All-Midwest Conference fullback for three years at Ripon (WI) College, Smith is a member of the school's Hall of Fame.

Smith was born and raised in Milwaukee, WI. He and his wife, Chris, have two daughters, Kay Ann and Janet, and a son, Jay.

DOLPHINS 15, BILLS 10

September 12, 2010 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 69,295

The Buffalo Bills kicked off their 2010 season with a 15-10 loss to the Miami Dolphins at a sold out Ralph Wilson Stadium in Orchard Park, New York.

This game marked the start of the Chan Gailey era as Bills head coach and was also the 89th meeting between the two AFC-East rivals, and the first time Miami has been victorious at Ralph Wilson Stadium since 2003.

Miami put together a 9-play drive that culminated with a K Dan Carpenter 32-yard field goal to give the Dolphins the early lead. After closing out the first quarter with a 3-0 advantage, the Dolphins found their way to the end zone with a RB Ronnie Brown one yard TD run. Following Miami's scoring drive Bills K Rian Lindell got his team on the board after a 51-yard boot that went through the uprights.

Coming out of the locker room at halftime trailing 10-3, the Bills defense forced back-to-back punting situations for the Dolphins, but unfortunately could not take advantage on the offensive end. After a scoreless third quarter, Miami put together a 9-play drive that ended with Carpenter giving the Dolphins a 13-3 lead with a little under 10 minutes to play. Immediately following that drive, the Bills offense got in to a rhythm. QB Trent Edwards went a perfect seven for seven on a 10-play drive that was finished off by an Edwards to WR Roscoe Parrish 31-yard touchdown pass to bring the Bills within a field goal.

The comeback came to an end when the Bills were pinned back within their 10-yard line and couldn't get a first down to keep the game winning drive alive. Buffalo's offense struggled on the day and found it hard to find a rhythm. QB Trent Edwards led the team in passing, going 18 for 34 and 139 yards with one score, while producing a 73.0 passer rating. Buffalo had six players tally two or more catches, having WR Roscoe Parrish lead the group with a touchdown grab.

The Bills defense fought hard all afternoon, making the Dolphins punt a total of seven times. Leading the defense in tackles was CB Drayton Florence with 10. S Donte Whitner wasn't far behind, producing 9 stops on the day. LBs Paul Posluszny and Chris Ellis each tallied a sack, as did S Bryan Scott, to give the Bills three on the day for a loss of 18 yards.

PACKERS 34, BILLS 7

September 19, 2010 – Lambeau Field – 70,741

The Buffalo Bills traveled to Green Bay, WI to face the Packers at Lambeau Field in their first road battle of the 2010 season. The Bills could not match the Packers' offensive surge in the second half and lost to Green Bay 34-7 in front of a sold out crowd of nearly 71,000.

Green Bay put together an eight-play drive and the Bills' defense held them to a 44-yard field goal by K Mason Crosby. The Packers put up the next 10 points, with another field goal, followed by a RB Brandon Jackson touchdown run late in the first quarter to give Green Bay a 13-0 lead.
Buffalo QB Trent Edwards got the offense in a rhythm at the start of the second quarter, guiding an eight-play, 80-yard drive that culminated in a RB Fred Jackson three-yard touchdown run, his first of the season. Following the score, Buffalo's defense forced QB Aaron Rodgers and the Packers offense to punt in back-to-back series to close out the half trailing by six.

The Bills came out of half time and Edwards threw his first two interceptions of the season, both passes were deflected. The turnovers led to Green Bay scores. The Bills defense fought hard all day and held the Packers rushing attack to under 100 total yards, but defending Rodgers' and the passing game turned out to be a much tougher task.

Buffalo RB Marshawn Lynch got the starting nod at running back, leading the Bills' running game with a game-high 64 yards on 17 carries. RB Fred Jackson contributed 39 yards on the ground, as the Bills out-rushed the Packers 124 to 91. Rookie RB C.J. Spiller hauled in 4 passes for 23 yards, while WRs Steve Johnson and Roscoe Parrish totaled 31 and 34 receiving yards, respectively. Spiller excelled on special teams, returning six kickoffs for 174 yards, with a long of 41. P Brian Moorman also totaled five punts for 232 yards, with a long of 51.

Leading the defense in tackles was LB Chris Kelsay with eight stops, seven of them being solo. Fellow LB Andra Davis also produced seven tackles on the day. Davis and CB Leodis McKelvin each forced fumbles, while McKelvin, NT Kyle Williams and S Bryan Scott had tackles for a loss.

PATRIOTS 38, BILLS 30

September 26, 2010 – Gillette Stadium – 68,756

Head Coach Chan Gailey took the Buffalo Bills to Foxborough, Mass. to face the Patriots at Gillette Stadium in their first AFC East road contest of the season. The Bills gave a fantastic effort but ultimately fell just short of defeating New England.

With over 800 yards of total offense and 68 points combined from both teams, the match up played out to be the highest scoring affair of the week three NFL season.

The Bills offense came out ready to play as QB Ryan Fitzpatrick got his first start of the 2010 campaign. Fitzpatrick led the Bills down the field with a 10-play, 59-yard drive that ended with the games' first points on a K Rian Lindell 39-yard field goal. Following the Bills scoring drive, QB Tom Brady and the Patriots offense got into a quick rhythm putting together a scoring drive of their own, culminating with a seven-yard touchdown pass from Brady-to-WR Randy Moss.

Buffalo put up two scoring drives in a row, starting with another Lindell 39-yard field goal followed by Fitzpatrick's first TD pass of the season, a five-yard swing pass to RB C.J. Spiller, his first career touchdown to give Buffalo a 13-7 lead. Both teams closed out the second quarter putting points on the board, totaling 23 from both teams. Heading in to the locker room at halftime, the score was 17-16 with New England holding the slight advantage.

The second half played out to be just as competitive as the first, with New England leading off with a scoring drive of their own, as Moss caught his second score of the afternoon. It didn't take long for the speedy rookie RB C.J. Spiller to answer back taking the ensuing kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown to keep the game within one point, 24-23. New England fired right back with back-to-back touchdowns to give the Patriots a 15-point advantage halfway through the final quarter.

Buffalo cut the deficit to eight points with a quick seven-play drive highlighted by a 37-yard touchdown pass from Fitzpatrick to WR Steve Johnson. The Bills defense stopped the Pats on the following drive giving the Bills a chance to tie the game late in the fourth quarter, but Fitzpatrick threw his second interception of the contest and the Bills comeback came to an end.

Leading the Bills offense was Fitzpatrick passing for 247 yards, going 20-for-28 and throwing two scores. Five different receivers caught three passes or more, as WR Roscoe Parrish led the way with five grabs for 83 yards. The Bills defense was highlighted by a10-tackle performance from S Donte Whitner and NT Kyle Williams produced the Bills lone sack on the day for a loss of seven yards.

JETS 38, BILLS 14

October 3, 2010 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 69,262

The Buffalo Bills hosted AFC East foe the New York Jets at Ralph Wilson Stadium in Orchard Park, NY. The Bills fell to the Jets, 38-14, taking their record to 0-4 on the season.

The Jets took the opening kickoff and QB Mark Sanchez led a nine-play, 63-yard drive that culminated with a RB LaDainian Tomlinson touchdown run, giving the Jets the early lead. Much of the first half was controlled by New York, limiting the number of possessions for QB Ryan Fitzpatrick and the Bills' offense. After letting up 17 unanswered points, it was time for the Bills to get on the scoreboard. Just before the half was about to end, Fitzpatrick got his offense moving, producing a seven-play, 64-yard drive that was capped off with a four-yard TD pass to TE David Martin, his first as a Buffalo Bill, to cut the deficit to 10 heading in to the locker room for halftime.

Coming out of the locker room at halftime trailing 17-7, the Bills had an opportunity to get back in the game as the offense took the field first, but could not get in to a rhythm and was forced to punt on their first possession. The third quarter was controlled by the Jets, putting up 21 points to bring their total to 38 on the afternoon. Buffalo didn't quit and put together their second scoring drive of the day when Fitzpatrick found WR Steve Johnson for a 13-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter.

Fitzpatrick finished 12-of-27 for 128 yards and two TDs, with an 83.6 rating, while also rushing for a career-high 74 yards on seven carries. Leading the defense in tackles was SS Donte Whitner with 13 stops, nine solo, while tallying one tackle for loss. LB Paul Posluszny, DE Dwan Edwards and LB Akin Ayodele all produced double digit tackles on the day with 12, 11 and 10, respectively. CB Leodis McKelvin and LB Reggie Torbor each had two passes defensed.

JAGUARS 36, BILLS 26

October 11, 2010 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 58,304

The Buffalo Bills fell to the Jacksonville Jaguars, 26-36, at Ralph Wilson Stadium. The match-up was the 10th regular season meeting between the two clubs and the fifth-straight year they have met in regular season play.

The Buffalo Bills got off to a good start after special teams ace Cary Harris forced a Jacksonville fumble on the first Bills punt of the day, resulting in a QB Ryan Fitzpatrick 45-yard touchdown strike to WR Lee Evans on the following play to put Buffalo on top early. On the following Jaguars possession, it was the Bills defense's turn to get in the mix as LB Andra Davis intercepted a QB David Garrard pass and returned it 11 yards to the Jaguars 30-yard line to give Buffalo great field position. K Rian Lindell capped off the five-play drive with a 29-yard field goal to extend Buffalo's lead to 10-0.

The Jaguars offense got rolling in the second quarter producing two scoring drives, the second being at the end of the quarter to tie the game up at 13 heading into halftime. K Josh Scobee drilled two field goals and TE Marcedes Lewis hauled in a one-yard touchdown pass.

The second half was close until the end as both teams were exchanging scoring drives in the third quarter. Fitzpatrick found WR Steve Johnson to tie the game at 20 in the third quarter. The Jags regained the lead when Garrard hit WR Mike Sims-Walker for six more points on the next drive.

The Jaguars extended their lead to 16 points with three Scobee field goals in the final quarter. The Bills tried to muster a comeback late in the game when Johnson caught his second touchdown of the game, but time ran out.

Buffalo RB Fred Jackson got the start and finished leading the team in rushing with 73 yards on 12 carries and 6.1-yard average. Also highlighting the offense was Evans with a game-high 87 receiving yards on five catches, while fellow WR Johnson continued his touchdown streak to three games as he hauled in five passes for 46 yards and two touchdowns. Fitzpatrick finished with a career-high rating of 121.5 and game-high 220 yards and three touchdown passes.

Leading the defense in tackles was LB Paul Posluszny with 13, eight of them being solo. Fellow LB Andra Davis and S Donte Whitner also produced double-digit stops with 11 a piece. Davis also recorded an interception on the day, his ninth of his career and first as a Bill.

RAVENS 37, BILLS 34 OT

October 24, 2010 – M&T Bank Stadium – 71,220

The Bills lost to the Ravens 37-34 in overtime. It was Buffalo's first overtime loss since Sept. 8, 2002 vs. NY Jets. An offensive outburst by the Bills was spoiled in OT by a 38-yard field goal by Raven's K Billy Cundiff. Buffalo racked up 514 yards of offense, including 374 through the air and 132 on the ground.

QB Ryan Fitzpatrick continued his hot streak, this time setting career-highs in yards and touchdowns. He finished with 382 yards on 29-of-43 passing for four touchdowns and two interceptions for a 106.2 QB rating. Both WRs Steve Johnson and Lee Evans topped 100 yards receiving. Evans had 105 yards and three touchdowns, while Johnson tallied 158 yards on eight catches and one score. RB Fred Jackson tallied a game-high 73 rushing yards on 23 carries.

The Ravens opened the scoring with a 41-yard field goal in the first quarter. The Bills responded scoring the next 17 points, as Evans grabbed a 33-yard score, K Rian Lindell booted a 21-yard field goal and Johnson found paydirt on a 33-yard pass from Fitzpatrick. After the Ravens found the endzone on a 26-yard touchdown catch by TE Todd Heap, Buffalo responded with a 20-yard touchdown to Evans for a 24-10 advantage with 4:56 to play in the first half. The Ravens rallied at the end of the half and the beginning of the third quarter, taking advantage of two Buffalo turnovers, to score 24 points and take a 34-24 lead into the fourth quarter.

Fitzpatrick found Evans for his third touchdown of the day, a 17-yarder with 5:51 left, to make the score 34-31. The Bills' defense forced a punt with 3:33 left in the game and the Bills drove to the Baltimore 32-yard line and Lindell hit a 50-yard field goal to force overtime with four seconds remaining.

In overtime, the Ravens got the ball first and the Buffalo defense forced a three-and-out. On the ensuing drive, the Bills picked up a quick 19 yards to the Buffalo 41-yard line. Two plays later, TE Shawn Nelson caught a pass over the middle and was stripped on the play and the Ravens recovered. The Ravens ran three plays and kicked the 38-yard game winner.

The Bills defense tallied two sacks, by LBs Chris Kelsay and Arthur Moats combining for one, and DE Dwan Edwards tallying the other. S Donte Whitner led the team with eight tackles.

CHIEFS 13, BILLS 10 OT

October 31, 2010 – The New Arrowhead – 66,625

Buffalo suffered its second straight overtime loss of the season, as the Kansas City Chiefs defeated the Bills, 10-13, at The New Arrowhead.

Both teams got off to a slow start as the first quarter ended scoreless and the ball clubs punted back and forth to one another. The Bills defense came ready to play and limited the Chiefs to four third-down conversions and 11 first downs in the first half. Kansas City was able to get on the scoreboard first with the half winding down, as QB Matt Cassel found WR Dwayne Bowe for a one-yard touchdown to give the Chiefs a seven-point advantage entering the locker room.

The Bills didn't take long to get on the scoreboard in the third quarter, as QB Ryan Fitzpatrick put together a 15-play drive that took up nearly nine minutes and culminated in a K Rian Lindell 43-yard field goal to cut the deficit to four points.

Kansas City took a seven-point advantage on a K Ryan Succop 28-yard field goal with a little over nine minutes remaining in regulation. It was Fitzpatrick's turn to put together a game-tying drive, leading the offense with another 15-play drive that ended in the hands of WR Steve Johnson to tie the game at 10 late in the fourth quarter. Johnson continued his touchdown streak to five games, his longest of his career and tied for the longest in franchise history. The Bills got the ball back with a little over a minute remaining, but a Fitzpatrick interception stopped Buffalo's chances to win in regulation and the game was forced to overtime.

Both teams missed game-winning field goal attempts in the 15-minute overtime period, the Bills' Lindell from 53 yards and the Chiefs' Succop from 39 yards. But the Chiefs got a second chance on a 38-yard field goal as the overtime period expired.

Buffalo RB Fred Jackson led the team in rushing with 64 yards on 20 carries. Also highlighting the offense was WR Lee Evans with 56 receiving yards on five catches, while fellow WR Johnson continued his touchdown streak to five games as he hauled in five passes for 37 yards and a touchdown. Fitzpatrick finished with a game-high 223 passing yards and one touchdown.

Leading the defense in tackles was LB Paul Posluszny with a career-high 18 stops, 11 of them solo. NT Kyle Williams was a force all day long and produced nine tackles, three for a loss, and two sacks for a loss of nine yards. Posluszny and DE Marcus Stroud tallied a half sack each to give the Bills defense three total sacks on the afternoon.

BEARS 22, BILLS 19

November 7, 2010 – Rogers Centre – 50,746

The Buffalo Bills lost a heartbreaker to the Chicago Bears in Toronto, ON by a score of 19-22. The match-up marked the third regular season NFL game played in Canada as part of the Bills Toronto Series.

Both teams found it hard to find an offensive rhythm as they forced multiple three-and-outs and exchanged punts throughout the first quarter. The second quarter was another story. The Bears were the first team to get on the scoreboard as QB Jay Cutler put together a 14-play, 81-yard drive that culminated in a TE Greg Olsen touchdown reception. Buffalo's defense was making plays all over the field and made it hard for Chicago to get in scoring situations. Bills QB Ryan Fitzpatrick felt the need to put points on the board before halftime, putting together a scoring drive of his own that ended up in the hands of WR Roscoe Parrish for his second touchdown reception of the season to go into the locker room tied at seven.

Chicago RB Chester Taylor found his way into the end zone midway through the third quarter to give the Bears a 14-7 lead. Buffalo responded right away with Fitzpatrick constructing an eight-play, 80-yard drive that was capped off by a RB Fred Jackson touchdown run, his second of the season. Immediately following the touchdown, K Rian Lindell got his PAT blocked, ending his streak of 321 straight successful PATs which is the fourth-longest streak in NFL history and the longest to start an NFL career.

Buffalo punched in another touchdown to give the Bills a 19-14 lead early in the fourth quarter as FB Corey McIntyre ran for his first career NFL score. After another stop by the Bills' defense, Buffalo had the chance to gain a significant lead, but a long pass intended for WR Steve Johnson was intercepted by the Bears. The Bears took the ensuing possession and found the end zone. Along with a two-point conversion, Chicago took a 22-19 lead with just over two minutes remaining.

The Bills turned it over on downs before getting a last chance with just over a minute left. The desperation drive ended as Fitzpatrick threw his second interception of the game.

Highlighting the offense was Johnson who finished the game with a career-high 11 receptions for a game-high 145 yards, while fellow WR Roscoe Parrish caught seven balls for 60 yards and a score. Fitzpatrick finished with a game-high 299 passing yards and career highs with 31 completions and 51 attempts.

Leading the defense in tackles was LB Paul Posluszny and FS Jairus Byrd, as each player finished with 10 stops apiece. SS Donte Whitner finished the day with eight tackles, seven of them being solo. DE Spencer Johnson tallied the Bills' lone sack on the afternoon, while also forcing and recovering a fumble.

BILLS 14, LIONS 12

November 14, 2010 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 56,721

The Buffalo Bills won their first game of the 2010 season against the Detroit Lions, 14-12, at Ralph Wilson Stadium.

Both teams found it hard to find an offensive rhythm in the first quarter mostly because each team's defense came ready to play as they both forced multiple three-and-outs and exchanged punts. At the beginning of the second quarter, QB Ryan Fitzpatrick put together the first scoring drive of the game, constructing a five-play, 57-yard drive that culminated in a RB Fred Jackson one-yard touchdown run, his third rushing score of the season. Buffalo's defense made it hard for Detroit to put anything together in the first half, but the Lions found a way to get on the scoreboard before heading into the locker room. QB Shaun Hill led a Lions' attack late in the second quarter that was highlighted by a K Dave Rayner 25-yard field goal as time expired in the first half.

The Bills came out on fire after halftime as Fitzpatrick used a heavy dose of Jackson on the ground and through the air. The six-play scoring drive was capped off by a Fitzpatrick to Jackson shovel pass for a 16-yard touchdown, putting Buffalo up 14-3. The Bills defense continued its strong showing with multiple third-down stops. When K Rian Lindell failed to capitalize on a 41-yard field goal at the end of the third quarter, it gave the Lions a chance to put together a comeback.

The Lions would not give up without a fight as they cut the deficit to eight points with a Rayner 45-yarder midway through the final quarter. Buffalo took a couple of minutes off the clock, but were forced to punt with 3:45 left in the game. Hill and the Lions put together a 15-play, 88-yard drive that ended up in the hands of WR Calvin Johnson with 0:14 seconds remaining in regulation to cut the lead to two points. It was up to a two-point conversion to take the game into overtime, but the Bills' pressure forced Hill to throw the ball out of the end zone and gave Buffalo its first victory of the year.

Highlighting the offense was Jackson, as he finished the game with a season-high 133 yards on the ground and a score, while also hauling in a team-high six passes for 37 yards and another touchdown. Fitzpatrick finished the contest with 146 yards passing and a touchdown, extending his passing touchdown streak to 10 games, the longest since Drew Bledsoe's 10-game streak in 2002.

Leading the defense in tackles was LB Paul Posluszny as he finished the day with 13 stops, 11 of them solo. Additionally, DE Dwan Edwards recorded his second career interception and the first as a Buffalo Bill off a deflection by SS Donte Whitner, while also producing seven tackles and a forced fumble.

BILLS 49, BENGALS 31

November 21, 2010 – Paul Brown Stadium – 55,654

The Buffalo Bills took their show on the road and defeated the Cincinnati Bengals at Paul Brown Stadium, 49-31. The Bills' offense put up 35 points in the second half while the defense posted the team's first second-half shut out of the season.

Bengals QB Carson Palmer took the opening drive in for a score when he found WR Chad Ochocinco for a two-yard touchdown. The Bills responded right away as QB Ryan Fitzpatrick put together a 12-play, 89-yard drive that was capped off by a RB Fred Jackson seven-yard touchdown run.

The second quarter was controlled by the Bengals, putting up 21 unanswered points in three different ways – a rushing, throwing and defensive touchdown. Fitzpatrick stopped the Bengals' scoring spree with his first touchdown pass of the game to WR Donald Jones late in the second quarter, his first career touchdown grab. Bengals K Aaron Pettrey finished off the first half with a 19-yard field goal to give the Bengals a 31-14 lead heading into the locker rooms.

The second half began with instant offense as Fitzpatrick put together a nine-play drive that ended up in the hands of WR Stevie Johnson for his first touchdown grab of the afternoon. Immediately following the Bills score, Buffalo's defense got in the mix as DE Marcus Stroud forced a fumble on the Bengals second play and CB Drayton Florence scooped it up and scored to cut the deficit to three points. As Cincinnati was starting to put together some momentum, FS George Wilson intercepted a Palmer pass in the end zone and took it 56-yards to Bills territory. Fitzpatrick capitalized on the turnover as he found Johnson for an 11-yard rouchdown, giving the Bills a 35-31 lead early in the fourth quarter.

After Buffalo forced a three-and-out, Fitzpatrick found Johnson for their third touchdown connection of the day, this time a 32-yarder to put the Bills up by double-digits. Buffalo wouldn't look back from there as they would rout Cincinnati scoring 35 unanswered second half points to earn their second straight win of the season and 10th consecutive victory versus the Bengals.

Highlighting the offense was Fitzpatrick as he tied a career-high in touchdown passes with four, while posting a 107.0 QB rating. WR Steve Johnson amassed 137 yards on eight receptions and three touchdowns, a career-high.

Leading the defense in stops was LB Paul Posluszny with 10, while LB Chris Kelsay and S Bryan Scott each posted a sack for a combined loss of 20 yards. CB Drayton Florence and FS George Wilson both had interceptions, while Florence had the Bills first defensive touchdown of the year.

STEELERS 19, BILLS 16 OT

November 28, 2010 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 69,942

The Buffalo Bills suffered their third overtime loss of the 2010 season and snapped a two-game win streak falling to the Pittsburgh Steelers, 19-16, at Ralph Wilson Stadium in front of a sold out crowd of 69,642.

The Steelers took the opening drive and turned it into seven points. QB Ben Roethlisberger led a 13-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a RB Rashard Mendenhall one-yard touchdown run and took up nearly half of the first quarter. Pittsburgh would use a heavy dose of Mendenhall to move the chains as K Shaun Suisham capitalized on two field goals to give the Steelers a 13-0 advantage entering the locker room at halftime.

Coming out after halftime, Buffalo started to get going on the offensive side of the ball as QB Ryan Fitzpatrick found RB Fred Jackson for a 65-yard touchdown, bringing the Bills within six points early in the third quarter. Buffalo's defense came up huge forcing the Steelers to punt in back-to-back situations. K Rian Lindell had a hot foot in the fourth quarter making two early field goals of 29 and 32 yards to tie the game up at 13. After the Steelers' Suisham made another 48-yard field goal to give Pittsburgh the lead midway through the final quarter in regulation, Buffalo got the ball back with plenty of time to spare. On the following drive, Fitzpatrick was intercepted in the red zone by S Troy Polamalu, halting a seven-play drive. Then Buffalo's defense made a monster stop to give their offense the ball back with 0:46 remaining. Fitzpatrick then put together a six-play drive that culminated in a Lindell 49-yard field goal to tie the game and force overtime.

After both teams' defenses forced a punt in overtime, the Steelers finished the game by using a combination of Mendenhall and Suisham, as he capped off the game with a 41-yard game winning field goal.

Highlighting the offense was RB Fred Jackson, as he finished the game with a career-high 104 receiving yards and a touchdown while also running for 59 more, to make this his third straight game with at least 100-yards from scrimmage. QB Ryan Fitzpatrick finished the contest with 265 yards passing and a touchdown, extending his passing touchdown streak to 12 games.

Leading the defense in tackles was SS Donte Whitner as he finished the day with a career-best 18 total stops, eight of them solo. Additionally, NT Kyle Williams had a stellar performance posting 10 tackles, 2.0 sacks for a loss of nine yards and three quarterback hits. Buffalo tallied a season-high five sacks as a team for a loss of 26 yards on the afternoon.

VIKINGS 38, BILLS 14

December 5, 2010 – Mall of America Field – 64,012

The Buffalo Bills suffered their 10th loss of the season at Mall of America Field as the Minnesota Vikings used a 24-point second quarter to ultimately beat the Bills 38-14.

Bills' LB Arthur Moats knocked Vikings QB Brett Favre out of the game on the third play of the game. Moats caused an erratic Favre throw which was picked off by CB Drayton Florence to give the Bills the ball in Minnesota territory. Later on in the first quarter, Florence would make another fantastic play, as he intercepted another pass, this time from Vikings back-up QB Tavaris Jackson, and ran it 40 yards the other way for the game's first touchdown and his second defensive score of the season.

It didn't take long for Minnesota to strike back as Jackson found WR Sidney Rice for a 31-yard pass down the right sideline. The play was originally ruled an incomplete pass, but the Vikings challenged the ruling and it was reversed for a touchdown. The second quarter involved a heavy dose of Minnesota RB Adrian Peterson as he punched in two touchdowns and the Vikings scored 24-unanswered points to take a 31-7 lead entering the locker room for halftime.

Although Buffalo's defense would ultimately intercept a season-high four passes, the Bills' offense could not find a rhythm to turn those turnovers into points. Late in the fourth quarter, Fitzpatrick found WR David Nelson for a 12-yard touchdown pass. The touchdown connection was Nelson's first career score and extended Fitzpatrick's streak of consecutive games with a touchdown pass to 13, tying Hall of Famer Jim Kelly for the second longest in franchise history.

Highlighting the offense were WRs Lee Evans and David Nelson, as Evans finished the contest with 72 yards on three catches and Nelson totaled 34 yards and a score. QB Ryan Fitzpatrick went 15-of-25 for 158 yards passing with a touchdown and an interception.

Leading the defense in tackles was LB Paul Posluszny with 15 total stops, 11 of them being solo, while also adding a sack for a loss of 10 yards and two tackles for a loss. Additionally, CBs Leodis McKelvin, Drayton Florence and SS Donte Whitner all tallied interceptions, while Florence led the pack with two and returned one for a touchdown.

BILLS 13, BROWNS 6

December 12, 2010 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 50,861

The Buffalo Bills snapped a two-game skid with a 13-6 win over the Cleveland Browns at Ralph Wilson Stadium.

Cleveland QB Jake Delhomme put together a scoring drive on their first possession of the game, using RB Peyton Hillis seven times for 49 yards, only to be stopped by Buffalo's defense at the goal line and held to a field goal. On the other hand, the Bills' offense took a little time to get rolling as they turned the ball over six plays into their first drive, but that didn't last long. Buffalo's defense came up big on the very next play, as FS Jairus Byrd forced a fumble which was recovered by NT Kyle Williams to shift the momentum back in the Bills' favor.

Buffalo's offense found the endzone early in the second quarter, as QB Ryan Fitzpatrick constructed a 14-play, 89 yard drive that was culminated with a WR David Nelson touchdown reception. After both teams nailed field goals on their following drives, Buffalo went into the locker room with a slight halftime lead, 10-6.

The story of the second half was the Buffalo's defense, as they would be all over the field making plays to give the Bills offense the ball back. Defensive Coordinator George Edwards and his defense caused four second half fumbles, recovering one, and intercepting a pass on a key drive in the fourth quarter. After CB Leodis McKelvin tallied his second interception of the season late in the fourth quarter, the Bills used a heavy dose of RB Fred Jackson, as he picked up multiple first downs and ran out the clock to give Buffalo their third win of the season.

Highlighting the offense was Jackson, as he finished with a game-high 112 yards on the ground on 29 carries, to make this his fourth out of the last five games with at least 100-yards from scrimmage. Fitzpatrick finished the contest with 142 yards passing and a touchdown with a QB rating of 93.0, extending his passing touchdown streak to 14 games which now stands alone as second best in franchise history. WR Steve Johnson led Buffalo in receiving with five grabs for 42 yards, while Nelson's only catch of the day resulted in his second touchdown of the season.

Leading the defense in tackles was LB Akin Ayodele finishing the day with a 10 total stops, six of them solo. Additionally, FS Jairus Byrd, SS Donte Whitner and LB Arthur Moats all forced fumbles while Williams and S Bryan Scott recovered two of them.

BILLS 17, DOLPHINS 14

December 19, 2010 – Sun Life Stadium – 65,511

The Bills won their first contest in Miami since 2007, as Buffalo beat the Dolphins 17-14 at Sun Life Stadium.

With Buffalo winning the coin toss and electing to defer to the second half, the Bills defense were the first to take the field. Continuing their hard-nose style of play, the Bills' defense held Miami and QB Chad Henne to a 48-yard field goal try that K Dan Carpenter ended up missing wide right. As both teams punted back and forth throughout the first quarter, it was Buffalo's defense that came up with another momentum shifting play, as FS George Wilson picked off a Henne pass in Miami's territory for his second interception of the season. That set up QB Ryan Fitzpatrick to find WR David Nelson for an 18-yard touchdown connection to put the Bills on the board first.

After NT Kyle Williams and LB Arthur Moats had a tackle for a loss and sack on back-to-back plays, Buffalo's offense got the ball back and put together another scoring drive that K Rian Lindell would capitalize on, booting a 29-yard field goal to give the Bills a 10-0 advantage. Miami RB Ronnie Brown would punch in a six-yard touchdown run to bring the Dolphins within a field goal entering halftime.

The second half began a little slow, but Fitzpatrick and Buffalo's offense had something to say about that midway through the third quarter, as he put together an 11-play drive that ended up in the hands of WR Stevie Johnson for the Bills' second touchdown of the day. After another missed field goal by Miami's Carpenter, Buffalo held a 17-7 lead entering the final quarter of regulation. Miami didn't quit as WR Brandon Marshall caught a nine-yard touchdown to bring the Dolphins within three points midway through the fourth quarter. The Bills defense would come up huge again on Miami's final drive of the game as S Bryan Scott recovered a fumble to close out the game and give Buffalo their fourth win of the season.

Highlighting the offense were WRs Johnson and Nelson as they combined for nine catches, 130 yards and 2 touchdowns on the afternoon. Fitzpatrick finished with 223 yards passing and two scores with a QB rating of 98.7, extending his passing touchdown streak to 15 games.

Leading the defense in tackles was SS Donte Whitner who had a total of eight stops on the afternoon, six of them solo, while also tallying a half sack for a loss of two yards. Additionally, FS Jairus Byrd and Moats had strong outings for the Bills' defense. As Byrd tallied four solo tackles and a sack, while Moats pitched in six tackles, five solo, and 1.0 sacks. Williams continued his dominate play on the defensive line with five solo tackles, two tackles for a loss and a 0.5 sack.

PATRIOTS 34, BILLS 3

December 26, 2010 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – 68,281

The Buffalo Bills snapped a two-game winning streak with a 34-3 loss against the New England Patriots at Ralph Wilson Stadium.

The game started off with a great drive put together by Bills' QB Ryan Fitzpatrick, as he used a heavy dose of RB Fred Jackson to move the chains and set up a K Rian Lindell 26-yard field goal to give Buffalo the early advantage. After both teams forced punting situations on the following drives, New England scored the game's first touchdown as RB Danny Woodhead scampered 29 yards to give the Patriots the lead at the end of the first quarter. New England's offense started to get hot in the second quarter and began to build on their lead. QB Tom Brady threw two touchdown passes in the quarter to TE's Rob Gronkowski and Alge Crumpler, while K Shayne Graham kicked a 34-yard field goal to make the lead 24-3 at halftime.

Coming out of the locker room, the Bills looked to spark a comeback and score their first touchdown of the game, but their first drive was halted by a Fitzpatrick interception that eventually led to Brady's third touchdown pass of the game. The Patriots tacked on another field goal in the second half and New England closed out the game with the final score of 34-3.

Fitzpatrick finished the contest with a game-high 251 yards passing and three interceptions, snapping his 15-game touchdown passing streak. WR Stevie Johnson led Buffalo in receiving with five grabs for 58 yards, while WR Donald Jones had five catches for 54 yards. Fitzpatrick and Johnson both reached career milestones as Fitzpatrick has now passed for 3,000 yards and Johnson has totaled over 1,000 receiving yards – both for the first time in their careers.

Leading the defense in tackles was LB Akin Ayodele finishing the day with a career-high 17 total stops, 11 of them solo. Additionally, LB Paul Posluszny and SS Donte Whitner totaled double-digit tackles with 13 and 12, respectively. LB Chris Kelsay tallied a sack on the afternoon for a loss of nine yards. The sack gave Kelsay 25.5 in his career, which ties him for 10th place on the Bills' all-time list with Fred Smerlas.

JETS 38, BILLS 7

January 2, 2011 – New Meadowlands Stadium – 79,019

The Buffalo Bills were defeated by the New York Jets in the season finale at New Medowlands Stadium.

QB Brian Brohm got his first start of the season and his second start of his NFL career in the contest. Brohm and the Bills' offense started the game off in rhythm, but was soon slowed down by a WR Stevie Johnson fumble after a 33-yard gain. After the turnover, the Jets' offense took the field and ran the ball 12 straight times in a drive that culminated in a K Nick Folk field goal to give New York the early advantage. After punts were exchanged between both ball clubs, Brohm was pressured and threw an interception that was taken 35-yards the other way for the game's first touchdown and gave the Jets a 10-0 lead. With very little offensive production for the rest of the first half, Jets' back-up QB Mark Brunell threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to WR Santonio Holmes late in the second quarter to give New York a 17-0 lead heading into the locker room.

Coming out from halftime, Buffalo's defense came alive as FS Jairus Byrd intercepted a pass and took it 37 yards for a Buffalo touchdown. Buffalo's defense tried to provide a spark and give the Bills momentum in the second half, the offense was unable to find a consistent rhythm. Late in the third quarter, the Jets would strike again with a WR Braylon Edwards 52-yard touchdown catch to take the game out of reach. The Jets punched in two more fourth quarter touchdowns to close out the contest 38-7.

Brohm finished with10 of 23 passing for 106 yards and three interceptions. Johnson tallied a team-high five catches for 72 yards while fellow WR Naaman Roosevelt had three grabs for 30 yards. RB Fred Jackson finished the day with 35 yards on the ground with one catch for 13 yards.

Leading the defense in tackles was LB Akin Ayodele finishing the day with a team-high 13 total stops, seven of them solo. Additionally, LB Paul Posluszny had 12 total tackles and DE Spencer Johnson tallied eight stops and a sack for a loss of seven yards.

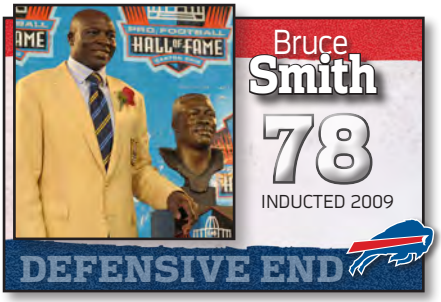
HISTORY

The impact Ralph Wilson, Jr. has had on professional football culminated in 2009 with his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

For starters, he is the only original AFL owner to keep his team in its originating city. The role he played in the AFL-NFL merger, his presence on nearly every NFL committee and his passion for the game as one who has always had the league's best interests at heart before his own team has led many to refer to him as the NFL's "voice of reason."

Under his direction as owner, the Bills won two AFL Championships in 1964 and 1965 and were the only AFL team to make the postseason in four consecutive years (1963-66). Later, his Bills would become the only team ever to win four consecutive AFC championships (1990-93) and appear in four straight Super Bowls.

He has been honored with numerous awards, including the Pete Rozelle Award from the Touchdown Club in New Orleans, the NFL Alumni's "Order of the Leather Helmet" and the "Timmie" Award from the Touchdown Club of Washington D.C. In 2008, Mr. Wilson received the Maxwell Football Club's Francis J. (Reds) Bagnell Award for Contributions to the Game of Football and the inaugural Lamar Hunt Award for Professional Football at the 101 Awards in Kansas City. At the turn of the century, The Buffalo News named Ralph Wilson, Jr. as the "Top Sports Figure" of the region in the past millennium.



Widely regarded as one of the most dominant defensive players ever to play in the National Football League, Bruce Smith began his tenure with the Buffalo Bills in 1985. Over the next 19 seasons, Smith would amass more sacks (200) than any other player in NFL history. In Buffalo, Smith anchored the defense for 15 years, which ranks first (along with WR Andre Reed) for the most seasons played in a Bills uniform. In 10 of those years, Buffalo reached the postseason.

Taken with the first overall pick in the 1985 NFL Draft, Smith started 13 games his rookie year and collected 48 tackles and 6.5 sacks. Those numbers jumped to 63 and 15.0, respectively, in 1986. Perhaps his finest year came in 1990, when he posted 101 tackles, 19.0 sacks and 14 QB pressures while the team won its first of four consecutive AFC Championships.

Smith was named to the Pro Bowl 11 times in his career and was the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1990 and 1996. Known for his ability to get to the opposing quarterback, Smith racked up sacks against 74 different quarterbacks and against every team but three: San Diego, Buffalo, and Baltimore. He ranks first in NFL history with 13 seasons of 10 or more sacks and second on the all-time postseason sack list with 14.5.

He was named to the NFL's All-Decade team in both the 1980's and 1990's. Smith was the AFC Defensive Player of the Week eight times during his Bills tenure, and Defensive Player of the Month six times. Extremely durable, Smith ranks 13th on the all-time games played list with 279.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- NFL's all-time sack leader with 200.
- Bills' all-time sack leader with 171.
- Selected to 11 Pro Bowls.
- NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1990 and 1996

Thurman Thomas developed into one of the NFL's most versatile and dangerous offensive players in his 13 years in the league. He was also known as one of the team's most emotional leaders for the Buffalo Bills – a team that won more games (103) than any AFC team in the 1990s.

His ability to catch the ball as well as run with it was a key ingredient to the Bills' "No Huddle" offensive attack.

The team improved to 13-3 in 1990 as Thomas led the NFL in all-purpose yards. He rushed for 1,297 yards and scored 11 touchdowns while catching 49 passes for 532 yards and two touchdowns. With the versatile back leading the way, the Bills marched through the playoffs to the first of their unprecedented four straight Super Bowl berths.

In 1991, Thomas amassed more than 2,000 all-purpose yards, just the 11th player ever to do so. His league-leading yardage output included 1,407 yards on the ground and an additional 631 yards on a career-high 62 receptions. He scored 12 touchdowns. He reached the 2,000-yard total again the following season which marked a record fourth straight season of leading the NFL in yards from scrimmage.

Named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, Thomas was selected first- or second-team All-Pro and All-AFC five times, and was voted to the Pro Bowl five straight years. Thomas retired as the NFL's ninth ranked rusher with 12,074 yards and added another 4,458 yards on 472 catches. He scored 65 rushing and 23 receiving touchdowns in his 13-season career.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- First NFL player to lead the NFL in yards from scrimmage in four consecutive seasons (1989-92)
- Third back in history to record 400 receptions and 10,000 rushing yards
- Five-time Pro Bowl selection and 1991 NFL Most Valuable Player

In the 1970s, Joe DeLamielleure and his Buffalo Bills offensive line mates were dubbed the "Electric Company," because they "turned the Juice loose." The "Juice" of course was Hall of Fame running back O.J. Simpson. An All-American and three-time All-Big Ten performer at Michigan State, "Joe D" was selected in the first round of the 1973 NFL Draft by the Bills.

Extremely durable and dependable, DeLamielleure played in 185 consecutive games during his 13 playing seasons with the Bills and the Cleveland Browns. A starter from the first game of his rookie season, DeLamielleure started in every game for eight seasons in Buffalo before being traded to Cleveland in 1980.

He went on to become the most honored lineman of the Bills respected front wall. Eight times during his career he was selected first- or second-team All-Pro; seven times he was named first- or second-team All-AFC, and six times he was named to the Pro Bowl. Since 1970, only two Hall of Fame guards, John Hannah with 10 and Gene Upshaw with seven, were named All-Pro more often.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Selected to six straight Pro Bowls from 1976-1981
- First or second-team All-Pro from 1974-1980, 1983
- Named to the 1970s All-Decade Team

James Lofton's speed and soft hands made him an immediate deep-threat receiver from the moment he entered the pros in 1978.

It was something he would remain throughout his long career with Green Bay, the Los Angeles Raiders, Buffalo Bills, Los Angeles Rams, and the Philadelphia Eagles. In 16 seasons, Lofton caught 764 passes for 14,004 yards – an average of 18.3 yards per catch. His 14,004 career-reception yardage mark was an NFL best at the time of his retirement, while his 43 games with 100 or more yards receiving ranked third.

In 1987, Lofton was traded to the Raiders, and two years later joined the Bills. In Buffalo, he reemerged as one of the game's premier deep-threats. In 1991, at the age of 35, the still-speedy receiver became the oldest player in league history to record 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

Extremely durable, Lofton was the first NFL player to score a touchdown in the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s. Many of his 75 touchdown receptions came on long passes when he simply outran the opposition.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- When he retired in 1993, his total of 14,004 yards was No. 1 all-time
- Selected to eight Pro Bowls (1979, 1981-86, 1992), named All-Pro four times and All-NFC three times
- Only player to score a touchdown in the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s

A strong-armed passer with a "linebacker's mentality," Kelly virtually rewrote the Bills' record book for quarterbacks. Only three players in NFL history had reached the 30,000-yard career passing mark faster. Eight times during his NFL career he passed for more than 3,000 yards in a season, and 26 times he passed for more than 300 yards in a game.

With Kelly and teammates Thurman Thomas and Andre Reed, the Bills possessed a highly potent offense during the 1990s. Kelly's quick decisiveness and fast paced "no-huddle" offense terrorized opposing defenses.

In 11 seasons in Buffalo, Kelly led the Bills to the playoffs eight times. In 17 playoff game appearances, including four consecutive Super Bowls, he passed for 3,863 yards and 21 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement, his 84.4 passer rating ranked sixth all-time and was second when compared to Hall of Fame quarterbacks. His 35,467 career passing yards ranked tenth in NFL history; his 2,874 completions ranked eighth; and his 237 touchdowns ranked thirteenth.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Selected to four Pro Bowls: 1987, 1990-1992
- Led the Bills to an unprecedented four straight Super Bowls from 1990-1993
- Passed for more than 3,000 yards eight times

In 1986, when Marv Levy was chosen to direct the fortunes of the Buffalo Bills, he brought with him more than 30 years of coaching experience. In 1987, his first full season with the Bills, the team returned to respectability with a 7-8 record and were in the playoff hunt throughout most of the season.

The following season the team posted a 12-4 record and won the first of six AFC Eastern Division titles. With his high-powered "no-huddle" offense, Levy went on to set a new standard for NFL coaches as he led his AFC championship team to four CONT.>

- Was NFL Coach of the Year in 1988, AFC Coach of the year in 1988, 1993 and 1995
- Led the Bills to the playoffs eight times, including four Super Bowls
- Won six AFC East Division titles

LEVY, continued... consecutive Super Bowl appearances.

From 1988 through 1997, the Bills were first in the AFC in winning percentage and second only to the San Francisco 49ers in the NFL. Levy, the winningest coach in Bills' history, recorded a 112-70 regular season record and was 11-8 in the playoffs during his 11 seasons with the Bills. He was named NFL Coach of the Year in 1988 and AFC Coach of the Year in 1988, 1993, and 1995.

Equally adept at pass blocking and run blocking, Billy Shaw's ability to pull out in front of runners was a perfect fit for the Bills. Shaw's speed, strength, and natural ability made him "the driving force of the offensive unit" according to his former offensive line coach Jerry Smith.

Especially effective on short-yardage scoring plays, Shaw would pull out from his left guard position followed by heavy-duty runners Cookie Gilchrist and Wray Carlton. Bills quarterback Jack Kemp or his super-sub Daryle Lamonica would follow the powerful trio of blockers – often untouched – into the end zone.

A key member of the Bills teams that won AFL titles in 1964 and 1965, Shaw was named a first-team All-AFL selection five times (1962 through 1966) and also a second team All-AFL choice in 1962, 1968 and 1969.

He was selected to play in eight AFL All-Star Games and was named to the All-Time AFL Team. Named to pro football's All-Decade Team of the 1960s, Shaw is the first Hall of Fame member to play his entire career in the AFL.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Helped lead the Bills to back-to-back AFL titles in 1964 and 1965
- Named All-AFL five times (1962-1966)
- First player to spend entire career in the AFL to be elected to the Hall of Fame

O. J. Simpson, a two-time All-American from the University of Southern California and the 1968 Heisman Trophy winner, was one of history's most heralded rookies when the Buffalo Bills selected him with the first overall pick in the 1969 draft.

His career record for 11 seasons confirms the rave notices were well founded. He rushed for 11,236 yards and scored 456 points on 76 touchdowns in his career.

O.J. may be best remembered for his sensational 1973 season when he became the first back in history to rush for over 2,000 yards. With 219 yards in the next-to-last game against New England and a 200-yard output in the finale with the New York Jets, Simpson totaled 2,003 yards, tops for a 14-game season.

Simpson also led the league in rushing four years: 1972, 1973, 1975 and 1976.

In various selections, he was named NFL Player of the Year in 1972, 1973 and 1975. He was both All-AFC and All-Pro five straight years from 1972 through 1976. He played in six Pro Bowls, winning Player of the Game honors in the 1973 game.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Won four NFL rushing titles (1972, 1973, 1975 and 1976)
- Became the first back to ever rush for more than 2,000 yards in 1973 with 2003 yards.

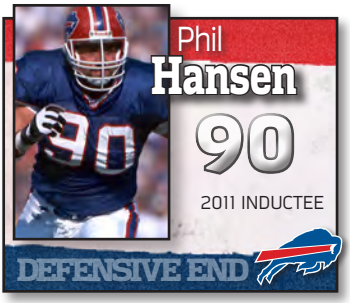
The Buffalo Bills Wall of Fame was created in 1980 to honor former players, administrators, and coaches who have played significant roles in the team's history. To be eligible for induction, an individual must have played with the Bills for at least three years and be retired from professional football. Also eligible are other individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the Bills, including administrators and coaches. Selections are made by a distinguished panel composed of club personnel and media members.

In 2011, the Bills will honor Phil Hansen. Hansen will become the 27th member of the elite group in an event that will take place when the Bills host the Oakland Raiders on September 18, 2011.



Phil Hansen: Played 11 seasons for the Bills from 1991-2001... he started 10 games as a rookie and remained a starter through his final season, starting 148 of 156 regular season games and stared 11 of 14 postseason games ... he tallied 61.5 sacks in his career, third on the Bills All-Time list ... only 10 other players have more years of service with the Bills and he tied for 17th in team history in games played... he registered two career interceptions, one in the regular season (2001) and one in the 1992 AFC Championship game which helped lead the Bills to 29-10 victory and the team's third consecutive Super Bowl appearance.

HOME FIELD HISTORY

- When the Buffalo Bills began play in 1960, their home venue was War Memorial Stadium. Built in 1936, the "Rockpile" was a 36,500-seat facility located in Buffalo at Jefferson and Best streets. In 1965, the open air, natural grass facility was expanded by adding an upper deck to increase capacity to 46,206.

- Years of extreme weather and the popularity of the Bills led to the creation of a larger facility. A 113-acre tract of land approximately 30 minutes from downtown Buffalo was selected and groundbreaking ceremonies were conducted in Orchard Park on April 4, 1972 for the new football complex. To form the lower level of the stadium, more than 370,000 feet of shale were removed – putting the field 50 feet below ground level. Construction was completed in slightly over 14 months and on August 17, 1973, the stadium was officially opened as the Bills played host to the Washington Redskins.

- Since the stadium's original construction, the facility has seen many changes. In 1984, the stadium's capacity was increased to 80,290 with the addition of 16 executive suites on the top floor of the administration building. Eight years later, 24 more suites were constructed in the west end zone and shared restrooms were added to the original suites. The Red Zone and Goal Line indoor clubs were added in 1994, offering fans a comfortable atmosphere as each of the two blocks of 500 seats are enclosed in glass. Also in 1994, 14 new suites were added, bringing the grand total to 88 luxury boxes. The 1994 expansion project also brought the team the largest JumboTron in the United States. This mammoth videoboard measured 31.5 feet high by 41.5 feet wide. Some of the capabilities of the videoboard include full-color instant replays, live action shots, crowd shots, out-of-town highlights, animations and various in-stadium shots from cameras exclusive to videoboard usage. In addition, a black and white Daktronics Scoreboard matrix system designed to complement the Sony JumboTron was installed.

- In 1999 crews completed a seven-month stadium overhaul that included constructing 76 brand-new dugout suites and two new enclosed club sections each containing 500 seats. Fans in the dugout suites watch the action just 40 rows from the field. In addition, the Bills replaced 6,800 seats in the sideline club sections with revolutionary contoured heated seats, the first of their kind in North America. Renovations also included four new restroom towers, upgraded stadium lighting and a state-of- the-art sound system.

- In 2007, the Bills introduced a new Mitsubishi high definition LED video display scoreboard measuring 33.5 feet by 82.8 feet. The accompanied new HD Digital Screen Controller will allow for simultaneous display of up to three multiple images (or one full screen image). This installation was only the second true high definition display in the NFL, largely as a result of the integral HD Processor used to produce the necessary lines of resolution (1080), to accurately depict an HD image. In addition, the Bills installed over 1,000 feet of Mitsubishi Diamond Vision LED Ribbon Boards on the fascia of the bowl seating areas. The traditional scoring system is encompassed within this state-of–the-art display along with dynamic sponsor ads, player/team statistics and fan prompts.

- In 2011, the team installed a new playing surface, A-Turf Titan 50. It is the top synthetic turf system available and is noted as the industry's top performing system by providing the perfect balance of traction, foot release and unparalleled durability.

:::: BILLS TORONTO SERIES ::::

In 2008, the Buffalo Bills became the first NFL team to host a regular season game on Canadian soil when they faced AFC East rival the Miami Dolphins on December 7. The Bills Toronto Series continued last year with its fourth and fifth installments with a preseason game on August 19 against the Indianapolis Colts and a regular season game against the Chicago Bears on November 7 at Rogers Centre in Toronto.

The Bills Toronto Series continues in 2011 with a regular season game against the Washington Redskins on October 30.

The series is an effort to further regionalize the Bills franchise and will bring a total of eight games over a five-year period to Toronto. The series began with a preseason game against the Pittsburgh Steelers on Thursday, August 14, 2008.

The series includes a regular season game each year (2008-2012) and preseason games in 2008, 2010 and 2012.

"We are very pleased to be the first franchise in NFL history to split our schedule between our domestic home city of Buffalo, New York and our neighboring international city, Toronto, Ontario," Bills owner Ralph Wilson commented in 2008. "The population growth in Toronto, the passion the Canadian fans have shown for the Buffalo Bills and the vision of Ted Rogers and Larry Tanenbaum have made this possible."

Phil Lind, Vice Chairman of Rogers Communications Inc. added, "This is like a dream come true. Playing a season's worth of games in the Rogers Centre will make for incredibly exciting football. Canadians love NFL football and this series will let Canadians see the games live in Toronto."

The Bills have set the standard around the league for the regionalization of their franchise, dating back to the relocation of training camp to Rochester, New York and continuing through this series.

VERIZON WIRELESS TRAINING CAMP

The Bills moved their training camp in 2000 to St. John Fisher College near Rochester, NY. St. John Fisher College quickly earned a national reputation for hosting one of the top training camps in the NFL. The Bills camp regularly attracts fans from across New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Canada. Fans from further destinations have made the Bills Training Camp a stop on their vacation agendas as well.

The team holds daily practices at St. John Fisher College and utilizes the school's state-of-the-art training facility and locker rooms. Fans may visit training camp on any day of the week to watch practice from the enhanced sideline vantage points and admission is free. As in years past, children and adults can enjoy interactive games, purchase game tickets as well as exclusive Bills gear in the vendor tent at the camp entrance. The Bills will hold seven evening practices. The practices will include a full team autograph session as well as an opportunity for fans to test their football skills in the Bills Experience.

For up-to-date accurate information, including practice times and schedules, directions, recaps, restaurant and hotel accommodations, please visit buffalobills.com or call the training camp hotline (800-441-5942).

:::: BUFFALO BILLS HEALTHY ZONE ::::

The Bills Healthy Zone redefines the state-of-the-art for indoor practice facilities. Construction of the facility began in March of 1995 and was completed in September of the same year. The 95,000 square-foot construction is 12 stories high and is large enough to duplicate the stadium field, including a new Field Turf surface. The building features a 20-foot wide rubberized track which runs around the field and is 1/5 of a mile in distance. It also houses a Bills' Photo Gallery that is composed of four-foot by six-foot photos of former players who were selected for the Bills Silver Anniversary Team, Pro Bowl, the Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. Distinguished Service Award, or the Wall of Fame.

Ralph Wilson Stadium Policies

Until further notice, anyone attending a Bills game at Ralph Wilson Stadium will be subject to a voluntary security inspection, administered by a screener prior to gate entry. Guests who appear to be intoxicated and/or unmanageable will not be permitted into the stadium.

To limit the potential wait time you could experience with gate entry, Stadium Management has a few suggestions:

- Arrive at the stadium gates as early as possible (gates open 1 ½ hours prior to kickoff).
- Guests should limit the number of items that are brought with them to minimize search time.
- Please follow all signage and direction from security personnel.
- If you give tickets to people who may not be familiar with stadium security policies, please alert your guests to these measures.

Permitted Items

- Additional clothing and blankets (if carried loosely)
- Bags smaller than 12"x12"x12"
- Binoculars
- Cameras with lenses of six (6) inches or less
- Food – unopened, single serve containers carried in clear plastic bags
- Seat cushions 15"x15" or smaller
- Small, pocket-sized electronic devices such as radios or hand-held TV's (fans will be asked to turn them on for inspection)

HOW THE BILLS GOT THEIR NAME

Following the 1946 season, in an effort to generate more fan interest and distinguish the football team from the city's minor league baseball and hockey teams, which also bore the name "Bisons," the team ran a contest to select a new name. Over 4,500 entries were submitted, and "the Bills" won out over "Bullets," "Nickels" and "Blue Devils." Several contestants suggested the winning name, but James F. Dyson was named the winner of the $500 prize based on his essay comparing the team to a band of "Buffalo Bills." He wrote that, while the legendary Indian Scout William "Buffalo Bill" Cody helped trailblaze the American Frontier, the football team (owned by the president of Frontier Oil) was opening a new frontier in Buffalo sports.

:::: ROGERS CENTRE FACTS AND FIGURES ::::

Rogers Centre is the most dynamic and versatile entertainment centre in the world. No other venue has the diversity of events that Rogers Centre hosts on an annual basis across over 200 event days. From professional sports (MLB, NFL, CFL) to concerts, family shows and trade shows, Rogers Centre is in constant demand.

Rogers Centre is recognized as one of the world's premiere entertainment centres, which since its spectacular opening on June 3, 1989, has achieved the highest honours in the stadium entertainment industry. Formerly known as SkyDome, the venue was renamed Rogers Centre on February 2, 2005.

One of the unique features of Rogers Centre is that it can be transformed to meet the needs of any event by converting between baseball and football mode. The 100 level seats sit on a railway track system that allows them to rotate from a baseball field to football field within hours.

In addition, Rogers Centre's fully retractable roof means we are an indoor facility with the ability to become open-air pending weather conditions. The roof system features a series of three moveable panels and one stationary panel which takes 20 minutes to open or close fully. The roof weighs 11,000 tons and covers an area of 339,343 square feet. The highest point stands 282 feet above field level.

:::: BILLS ROOKIE/FIRST-YEAR RECORDS ::::

NOTE: Rookies are those players who played in the AFL/NFL in the year they were drafted or first signed as an undrafted free agent. First-year players (those who did not compete in any professional league – including the CFL, WFL, or USFL - prior to the year of their first AFL/NFL appearance) are noted accordingly.

EVERY DAY IS GAME DAY ON BUFFALOBILLS.COM

Buffalobills.com is the complete and official Bills information center for Bills fans across America and internationally. The newly expanded website provides more access to the Bills than ever before. Exciting and insightful video and written content along with entertaining Bills features gives fans unprecedented access to the Bills franchise.

Chris Brown, Bills lead journalist, writes daily Bills news and maintains the Inside the Bills Blog from within the walls of One Bills Drive. For the past 16 years, Brown has covered the Bills for a number of Buffalo-area media outlets and most recently serves as the pre-game co-host, and analyst for the Bills Radio Network. Brown also joins Steve Tasker each week on the Bills Television Network's show, Bills ALL ACCESS presented by Tim Horton's.

An extensive media lounge section on the team's website is filled with video from the Buffalo Bills Entertainment which showcases and highlights behind the scenes coverage at One Bills Drive. The Bills Online TV Channels, Bills Focus and Bills Roundup will emphasize the top plays, highlights and things you won't see on regular television. Buffalobills.com also offers viewing of all Bills press conferences, including Chan Gailey's weekly preview of the upcoming game.

Along with the expanded coverage and content, Buffalobills.com remains the Internet's one-stop shop for official Bills information, merchandise and tickets.

RECORD BOOK

BILLS TOP TURNAROUNDS

With their 27-9 win in the season finale over Cincinnati, the Bills executed a 5-game turnaround from the 2002 season, matching the best one-year improvement in franchise history. It also marked the best improvement in the AFC in the 2002 season and the second-best in the NFL behind the Carolina Panthers who went 1-15 to 7-9 (+6). The Bills' five-win increase matches the turnaround of +5 accomplished in 1964, 1973, and 1988.

COMMUNITY

In 2010, Levi participated in the Toyota Rookie Club appearing at numerous community events throughout Western New York and Southern Ontario. The Toyota Rookie Club helps the franchises newest players become more involved in the Western New York community. Each month, Levi and all first year players did one community appearance as a group.

The Toyota Rookie Club events included a visit to the Buffalo Zoo to celebrate the 12th Annual Hometown Huddle, a visit to the North York YMCA in North York, Ontario to unveil a new Youth Zone and a trip to the Northwest Buffalo Community Center in November where the Rookie Club members served Thanksgiving Dinner to approximately 350 children and families. In addition to serving food, the players introduced themselves to the community members during a brief ceremony, sat and ate with them, and signed autographs. The final Rookie Club appearance of 2010 took place at the Annual Bills Holiday Party. The Rookie Club hosted 100 children from a number of different local community organizations. The Annual Holiday Party gives children from the organizations an opportunity to celebrate the holidays with the Bills players, Jills cheerleaders, Billy Buffalo and Santa Claus. The children received a holiday dinner, pictures and autographs and gifts from a wish list that they had previously submitted.

In July of 2010, Levi along with Naaman Roosevelt, Arthur Moats and Torell Troup participated in the IZOD Street Party and Pit Stop Challenge in Toronto, Ontario. The event was to rally fans for the IndyCar Race that was happening the upcoming weekend. In addition to participating in the Pit Stop Challenge and Street Party, Levi met with fans, signed autographs and posed for pictures.

Levi also participated in the Bills and NFL's Annual High School Player Development (H.S.P.D.) camp which focuses on character development and specific football-skill training. Along with assisting in the football drills, Levi helped spread positive messages about staying in school and on the right track.

Along with many of his teammates, Women and Children's Hospital of Buffalo became a favorite place to visit for Levi. Throughout the months of May, June and July, Bills players hosted a Cinco-de-Mayo party, Garden Stone Decorating parties and a Christmas in July party in the oncology and surgical floor playrooms. Players not only participated in arts and crafts, they also visited with patients and their families, signed autographs and posed for pictures.

Levi supported the Teammates For Kids Foundation this year by attending their annual dinner held in November. Levi along with his other teammates have supported the cause which was co-founded by Garth Brooks and Bo Mitchell over the past 5 years. Levi also supported his teammate Brian Moorman and the PUNT Foundation by attending the Annual Black Tie Gala held in October of 2010, which raised over $80,000 benefitting children battling cancer.

- at MIA (12/19) Extended streak of consecutive games with a touchdown pass to 15, marking the second-longest such stretch by a Bills QB since 1986-87 (Jim Kelly, 18)... completed 16-of-26 passing for 223 yards with two touchdowns
- vs. NE (12/26) Increased season passing yardage to 3,000, his first 3,000-yard season of his career, marking the 14th such season by a Bills QB... became first Bills QB to complete two passes of 40-plus yards since 2006 (J.P. Losman)... completed 18-of-37 passing for 251 yards
- at NYJ (1/2) Inactive as the third quarterback

2009

- First five games: Took over a very important role when Alex Van Pelt became Offensive Coordinator and moved upstairs to the coaches booth by relaying the call to Trent Edwards on the field
- At NYJ (10/18): Led Buffalo back from a 10-point deficit in the second half to force overtime and defeat the Jets 16-13, after replacing an injured QB Trent Edwards in the second quarter... completed 10 of 25 passes for 116 yards with one touchdown and one interception... completed a 37-yard touchdown pass to WR Lee Evans to tie the game at 13 in the third quarter
- At Car. (10/25): drew his first start of the season and the 6th of his career...became the 34th QB to start in Bills history...became the 4th consecutive Bills QB to win his first start (Trent Edwards, 17-14, vs. NYJ, 9/30/07; Kelly Holcomb, 20-14, vs. Miami, 10/9/05; J.P.Losman, 22-7, vs. Hous., 9/11/05)
- Vs. HOU (11/1): Completed 15 of 23 passes for 117 yards with two interceptions in his second straight start... eclipsed 3,000 passing yards in his career... made his first start at Ralph Wilson Stadium as a member of the Bills, becoming the 31st QB to start a home game in franchise history
- At TEN (11/15): Saw action in relief of QB Trent Edwards in the final three minutes of the game... completed two of seven passes in the team's final three possessions
- At JAX (11/22): Threw a 98-yard touchdown pass to WR Terrell Owens... pass play was the longest (and longest scrimmage play) in Bills history... finished the game completing 18 of 31 passes for 297 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions
- Vs. MIA (11/29): Led the Bills to a fourth quarter comeback, trailing 14-7 entering the final stanza to win 31-10 over the Dolphins... ran for a 31-yard touchdown, marking the longest rushing touchdown by a QB in team history and of his career... completed 17 of 26 passes for 246 yards with one touchdown and one interception for a QB rating of 92.8
- Vs. NYJ (12/3): Threw for 98 yards on nine of 23 attempts, added 32 rushing yards on five rushes... became the first Bills QB with consecutive games with 30 or more rushing yards since Doug Flutie (2000)
- At KC (12/13): Completed 12 of 20 passes for 86 yards with one touchdown and an interception... connected with WR Terrell Owens on a nine-yard touchdown toss
- Vs. NE (12/20): completed 68 percent of his passes on 17-of-25 completions for 178 yards with a touchdown and an interception...connected with WR Lee Evans for an 11-yard score
- At ATL (12/27): Inactive
- Vs. IND (1/3): Posted a career-best 120.8 passer rating, completing 16-of-25 passes for 155 yards with three touchdowns... three touchdowns tied a career-high (11/27/05 at HOU)

COMMUNITY

Fred was chosen as the 2010 winner of the Buffalo Bills/ NFL Walter Payton Man of the Year Award, as voted on by selected members of the Western New York community. The award was given to Fred for a combination of his excellent play on-the-field and his tremendous off-the-field contributions to the community. In 2010, Fred served as an active spokesperson for the Buffalo Bills Billieve Breast Cancer Awareness Campaign. Fred and his wife, Danielle, were at the Light the Falls Pink event held on October 1st and were featured in a PSA on the Buffalo Bills webpage. Fred also supported the league wide initiative by wearing pink cleats, gloves and wristbands during the BCA home game on October 3rd vs. the New York Jets.

Fred also showed his support by visiting Armor Elementary in Hamburg, NY which was named the "Play 60 Super School" through the Back to Football Friday Program. Fred participated in the Ultimate Physical Education Class and presented the $10,000 grant to the school so they can continue their health and wellness initiatives.

Fred served as a spokesman for the Fuel Up to Play 60 Program and attended their event that took place in the Buffalo Bills Fieldhouse. The event stressed the importance of the national Play 60 program and getting 60 minutes of physical activity each day as well as practicing a healthy lifestyle by eating right and making conscious decisions about wellness. Fred was also a spokesperson for the 2010 Kids Escaping Drugs Campaign "Take Pride in Making Strides." With the help of Fred raising awareness for the cause, Kids Escaping Drugs was able to raise $3,295 in a two hour autograph session. Fred has been an active member in Kids Escaping Drugs for the past 2 years.

Fred also attended the Red Ribbon Rally in 2010. Fred, along with other Bills teammates spoke to students in Buffalo Public Schools and encouraged them to make good decisions and stay away from drugs. He also rallied with his teammates for the Feed the Children event in November when a tractor trailer of food was donated to the Food Bank of WNY. Fred helped load boxes of food into the vehicles of 400 families, which were selected by the Food Bank of WNY.

In addition, Fred participated in the 2010 Community Ticket Donation Program by donating 20 season tickets to Carly's Club. Over 200 people were part of Freddy's Fanatics and attended Buffalo Bills home games where they were also treated to food and beverage coupons compliments of Fred.

COMMUNITY

In 2010, C.J. participated in the Toyota Rookie Club appearing at numerous community events throughout Western New York and Southern Ontario. The Toyota Rookie Club helps the franchises newest players become more involved in the Western New York community. Each month, C.J. and all first year players did one community appearance as a group.

The Toyota Rookie Club events included a visit to the Buffalo Zoo to celebrate the 12th Annual Hometown Huddle, a visit to the North York YMCA in North York, Ontario to unveil a new Youth Zone and a trip to the Northwest Buffalo Community Center in November where the Rookie Club members served Thanksgiving Dinner to approximately 350 children and families. In addition to serving food, the players introduced themselves to the community members during a brief ceremony, sat and ate with them, and signed autographs. The final Rookie Club appearance of 2010 took place at the Annual Bills Holiday Party. The Rookie Club hosted 100 children from a number of different local community organizations. The Annual Holiday Party gives children from the organizations an opportunity to celebrate the holidays with the Bills players, Jills cheerleaders, Billy Buffalo and Santa Claus. The children received a holiday dinner, pictures and autographs and gifts from a wish list that they had previously submitted.

C.J. also participated in the Bills and NFL's Annual High School Player Development (H.S.P.D.) camp which focuses on character development and specific football-skill training. Along with assisting in the football drills, C.J. helped spread positive messages about staying in school and on the right track. He was also an active member of the Buffalo Bills Play 60 Challenge Program. Not only was C.J. featured on his own trading card with health tips, he also participated in the Play 60 Kickoff at Kleinhan's Music Hall and the Fitness Party at the Bills Fieldhouse.

C.J. and his teammates showed support for the Feed the Children organization when a tractor trailer of food was donated to the Food Bank of WNY. C.J. helped load boxes of food into the vehicles of 400 families, which were selected by the Food Bank of WNY, sign autographs and pose for pictures.

He also was one of the spokespersons for the 2010 Kids Escaping Drugs Campaign "Take Pride in Making Strides." With the help of C.J. raising awareness for the cause, Kids Escaping Drugs was able to raise $3,295 in a two hour autograph session. In addition, he supported his teammate Brian Moorman and the PUNT Foundation by attending the Pottery Painting Party held in the Bills Fieldhouse in September.

Caulcrick, Jehuu

2009 w/ NY Jets & Tampa Bay
• Started season on NYJ practice squad before being released early in season.
• Signed by TB to practice squad on 12/29/09.

2008 w/ NY Jets
• Spent the first 16 weeks of the season on the Jets on practice squad.

COLLEGE
Honorable mention All-Big Ten selection by the media. Four-year letterman who rushed for 2,336 career yards on 517 attempts for 39 TDs. His 39 rushing TDs were 2nd-best at MSU, behind RB Lorenzo White's record 43.

PERSONAL
• Led Clymer (N.Y.) HS to four straight Section VI Class D championships.
• SuperPrep All-American who was ranked among the nation's top backs.
• Three-time all-state and all-western New York selection who was named Player of the Year by The Buffalo News and The Post-Journal and Class D Player of the Year by the NYS Sportswriters Associaton.
• Western New York's all-time leader with 6,559 career yards, including 2,161 yards and 28 TDs as a senior.
• Born in Liberia.
• Graduated with a degree in sociology.

• Jehuu was born in Liberia and lived there until he was able to leave the country when he was 9. While living in Liberia a civil war broke out. His father, who was in a politician and security chief for the Liberian secretary of state, was assassinated during the war when Jehuu was only 8. For two years, Jehuu and his family were on the run going from refugee camp to refugee camp before they could obtain visas to come to America and join his mother, Bonita, who had moved to the U.S. years earlier. During that time, he saw his adopted brother killed and his grandfather shot in the leg (he survived). Jehuu witnessed a lot of violence and stated that they literally were stepping over dead bodies at times. Jehuu stated that coming to America was "A new beginning for me. I had the opportunity to come here and start my life over".
• Jehuu has a deep desire to provide help to refugees, much like he was when he was younger. He has been volunteering his time in Lansing, MI, to the Refugee Development Center since he was a sophomore in college. "I go in there to put on fundraisers to raise money for the development center so the kids can get an education and help their parents as well." His ultimate goal is to start a non-profit center of his own.
• Jehuu is going back to Liberia next summer to do a football camp to introduce American football to the children of Liberia. "I didn't know what football was until I came to America. I just want to give back and teach the kids something new."
• Jehuu has aspirations to attend culinary school so he can open his own restaurant.

COMMUNITY
In 2010, Jehuu made his mark in the community by visiting the children at Women and Children's Hospital of Buffalo. Jehuu would visit with the children and their families at the hospital, sign autographs and pose for pictures.

COMMUNITY

Steve participated in the Night out with the Bills which is put on by the Buffalo Pro Ministry Athletes in Action. The players in attendance shared stories about their views on faith, signed autographs and posed for pictures with over 700 members of the Buffalo Community.

Steve also participated in the American Red Cross Blood Drive at Ralph Wilson Stadium in November of 2010. He visited with donors, signed autographs and posed for pictures. With the help of Steve and the teams support, over 500 units of blood were collected, ultimately saving over 1,500 lives.

COMMUNITY

In 2010, Naaman participated in the Toyota Rookie Club appearing at numerous community events throughout Western New York and Southern Ontario. The Toyota Rookie Club helps the franchises newest players become more involved in the Western New York community. Each month, Naaman and all first year players did one community appearance as a group. The Toyota Rookie Club events included a visit to the Buffalo Zoo to celebrate the 12th Annual Hometown Huddle, a visit to the North York YMCA in North York, Ontario to unveil a new Youth Zone and a trip to the Northwest Buffalo Community Center in November where the Rookie Club members served Thanksgiving Dinner to approximately 350 children and families. In addition to serving food, the players introduced themselves to the community members during a brief ceremony, sat and ate with them, and signed autographs. The final Rookie Club appearance of 2010 took place at the Annual Bills Holiday Party. The Rookie Club hosted 100 children from a number of different local community organizations. The Annual Holiday Party gives children from the organizations an opportunity to celebrate the holidays with the Bills players, Jills cheerleaders, Billy Buffalo and Santa Claus. The children received a holiday dinner, pictures and autographs and gifts from a wish list that they had previously submitted.

In July of 2010, Naaman along with Levi Brown, Arthur Moats and Torell Troup participated in the IZOD Street Party and Pit Stop Challenge in Toronto, Ontario. The event was to rally fans for the IndyCar Race that was happening the upcoming weekend. In addition to participating in the Pit Stop Challenge and Street Party, Naaman met with fans, signed autographs and posed for pictures.

Naaman also participated in a Gatorade Junior Training Camp that was held at the Johnnie B. Wiley Amateur Athletic Pavilion in Buffalo. Naaman and the other players lead the students through football-themed drills and stressed the importance of the Buffalo Bills Play 60 program and being physically active for 60 minutes a day.

Naaman also supported the Buffalo Bills Play 60 Movement by attending the Play 60 Fitness Party in December. Over 300 children from the Buffalo Public Schools came to the Bills Fieldhouse to enjoy the fitness party. Players in attendance discussed the importance of staying active for 60 minutes a day and assisted in running the football-themed fitness stations.

COMMUNITY

In 2010, David participated in the Toyota Rookie Club appearing at numerous community events throughout Western New York and Southern Ontario. The Toyota Rookie Club helps the franchises newest players become more involved in the Western New York community. Each month, David and all first year players did one community appearance as a group. The Toyota Rookie Club events included a visit to the Buffalo Zoo to celebrate the 12th Annual Hometown Huddle, a visit to the North York YMCA in North York, Ontario to unveil a new Youth Zone and a trip to the Northwest Buffalo Community Center in November where the Rookie Club Members served Thanksgiving Dinner to approximately 350 children and families. In addition to serving food, the players introduced themselves to the community members during a brief ceremony, sat and ate with them, and signed autographs. The final Rookie Club appearance of 2010 took place at the Annual Bills Holiday Party. The Rookie Club hosted 100 children from a number of different local community organizations. The Annual Holiday Party gives children from the organizations an opportunity to celebrate the holidays with the Bills players, Jills cheerleaders, Billy Buffalo and Santa Claus. The children received a holiday dinner, pictures and autographs and gifts from a wish list that they had previously submitted.

David supported the Teammates For Kids Foundation this year by attending their annual dinner held in November. David along with his other teammates have supported the cause which was co-founded by Garth Brooks and Bo Mitchell over the past 5 years. David also participated in the Night out with the Bills which is put on by the Buffalo Pro Ministry Athletes in Action. The players in attendance shared stories about their views on faith, signed autographs and posed for pictures with over 700 members of the Buffalo Community.

Along with many of his teammates, Women and Children's Hospital of Buffalo became a favorite place to visit for David. Throughout the months of May, June and July, Bills players hosted a Cinco-de-Mayo party, Garden Stone Decorating parties and a Christmas in July party in the oncology and surgical floor playrooms. Players not only participated in arts and crafts, they also visited with patients and their families, signed autographs and posed for pictures. David along with many of his other teammates spent a day in July with the children of Stone's Buddies at the Buffalo Zoo. David helped the children with arts and crafts, took them on a tour of the zoo, signed autographs and posed for pictures with the children and their families.

David also supported his teammate Brian Moorman and the PUNT Foundation by attending the Annual Black Tie Gala held in October of 2010, which raised over $80,000 benefitting children battling cancer.

Barnett, Nick

CAREER
- Reached 1,000 career tackles early in the 2010 season, becoming only the third defender in franchise history to surpass the milestone since the statistic was established in 1975.
- Led the Packers in tackles five times, and is only the first player in franchise history to top the chart for three straight seasons (2003-05).
- Also recorded 15.5 sacks, nine INT's, seven fumble recoveries and a pair of forced fumbles since arriving in 2003 as the Packers first-round pick.
- In 2005 set the club's single-season record with 194 tackles (128 Solo), breaking the mark of 180 that Mike Douglass hit in 1981.
- In 107 career games played, has only had eight contests with less than five tackles. Has posted double-digit tackle total in 51 career games, including 10 with 15 or more.

2010 w/ Green Bay
- @ Detroit (Oct. 3): Sustained a season ending injury to the wrist that required surgery
- Played and started in first four games of the season
- Had a total of 24 tackles (19 solo)

2009 w/ Green Bay
- Started all 16 games plus one playoff contest at Mack LB and led the team with 122 tackles (96 solo)
- Posted a career-high four sacks, which was tied for third on the team
- Led the LBs with passes defensed, and added seven QB hits and three pressures
- Registered six double-digit tackle games on the season
- Coming off rehab for his injured knee, returned to full participation in practice on Aug. 24 and returned to the field for the first time in preseason finale at Tennessee (Sept. 3)
- @ Minnesota (Oct. 5): Led the team with a season-high 13 tackles (11 solo)
- Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Matched his career high with two sacks as he brought down QB Tony Romo for a 10-yard loss on the first play of the second quarter and again for an 8-yard loss on the second play of the second half

2008 w/ Green Bay
- Started first nine games at MLB and posted 68 tackles (49 solo) with two passes defensed and one forced fumble before suffering season-ending right knee injury in Week 10 at Minnesota
- Had surgery on Nov. 20 to repair torn ACL
- Inactive for three games following injury, snapping a streak of 30 consecutive games played dating back to a missed contest Nov. 27, 2006 (at Seattle)
- @ Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Led team with season-high 12 tackles (9 solo)
- @ Minnesota (Nov. 9): Sustained season-ending knee injury on first series of third quarter attempting to make a tackle of RB Adrian Peterson

2007 w/ Green Bay
- Selected to The Associated Press 2007 NFL All-Pro second team and voted as a Pro Bowl first alternate
- Started all 16 games for the third time in his career (plus both postseason contests) and led the team with 165 tackles (109) solo
- Added two INTs among six passes defensed and one fumble recovery, plus a (then) career-high 3 1/2 sacks
- Playing 94.1 percent of the defensive snaps, tallied over 130 tackles for the fifth consecutive season, recording his 500th career solo tackle in Week 12 at Detroit
- Led the packers in tackles for the fourth time in his first five seasons
- Vs. San Diego (Sept. 23): Won 'GMC Defensive Player of the Week with eight tackles (six solo) and a key fourth-quarter INT
- Vs. Washington (Oct. 14): Collected a team-high 15 tackles (11 solo)
- @ St. Louis (Dec. 16) Made 18 tackles (12 solo), tied for the second-highest total of his career. His 18 total and 12 solo tackles were both a team and season high
- Vs. NY Giants (NFC Championship, Jan.20): Had a team-high and playoff career-high 14 tackles (six solo)

2006 w/ Green Bay
- Voted a Pro Bowl alternate
- Started each of his 15 games and was inactive for one contest with a broken hand – the first game he missed in exactly three years
- Finished second on the team with 141 tackles (88 solo), with two sacks, two INTs, one fumble recovery and nine passes defensed
- Played the season's final five games with a 'club' cast
- Was in on 950 defensive plays, or 91 percent
- Sacked Matt Leinart on a third down and teamed up with Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila to sack Leinart for his first career multi-sack game
- Vs. New England (Nov. 19): Broke his hand late in game and sat out the next game at Seattle, only the second game he missed during his NFL career, ending a streak of 46 straight starts
- Vs. Detroit (Dec. 17): Led team with season-high 15 tackles (12 solo), including No. 600 career

2005 w/ Green Bay
- Started all 16 games at 'Mike' LB for the second consecutive season
- Set the single-season franchise record with 194 tackles (128 solo), breaking Doublass' 1981 mark of 180
- His 194 total stops ranked third in the NFL, trailing only the Browns' Andra Davis (199) and Tampa Bay's Shelton Quarles (196)
- His 128 solo tackles ranked second in the league, behind the Jet's Jonathan Vilma (143)
- Also recorded one INT among three passes defensed, forced one fumble, recovered three others and scored his first NFL TD
- Finished first among LBs and tied for second on the defense in snaps played, having been on the field for 97.4 percent of defensive plays
- @ Carolina (Oct. 3): Totaled a team and career-high 21 tackles (12 solo)
- Vs. New Orleans (Oct. 9): Midway through the fourth quarter, picked off a point0blank Todd Bouman pass in the middle of the field and returned it 95 yards for a TD, the third-longest in Lambeau Field history
- @ Cincinatti (Oct. 30): Made a team-best 18 tackles (15 solo, a career high)
- @ Atlanta (Nov. 13): Sacked Michael Vick and recovered a career-best two fumbles

2004 w/ Green Bay
- Started all 16 regular-season games, plus one playoff contest, and again paced the team in tackles with 162 (116) solo, including three sacks plus one INT, one fumble recovery and eight passes defensed
- @ Carolina (Sept. 13): Earned 'NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors with team-leading 11 tackles (8 solo), plus an 11-yard sack and INT of QB Jake Delhomme
- Vs. NY Giants (Oct. 3): Amassed a season-high 17 total tackles (9 solo)
- @ Philadelphia (Dec. 5): In an emotional contest, notched a season-best 14 solo stops, including four for a loss, and added one pass defensed; had learned that morning his father had passed away after a battle with cancer
- Vs. Detroit (Dec. 12): The following week, again played with deep emotion as he dedicated contest to his late father and led the team with 16 tackles (12 solo)

2003 w/ Green Bay
- Started 15 games in the middle as a rookie, plus two playoff games; was inactive for the other contest (Nov. 27 at Detroit) after spraining his right ankle four days earlier against San Francisco
- Led the team in both total (134) and solo (95) tackles, including two sacks; his 134 stops were the most by an NFL rookie in 2003 and third most by a rookie in team history
- Also posted three INTs, nine passes defensed, one fumble recovery and four special team stops
- Vs. Detroit (Sept. 14): Earned Pepsi 'NFL Rookie of the Week' with 14 tackles (12 solo) and his first NFL INT
- @ Seattle (Oct. 5): Captured his second rookie of the week award with 11 stops and a sack of Hasselbeck, his second sack in two weeks after getting his first career sack against the Bears' Kordell Stewart
- Vs. Kansas City (Oct. 12): Received rookie of the week recognition for the third and final time with 14 tackles
- @ Tampa Bay (Nov. 16): Received even more prestigious NFL 'Defensive Player of the Week honor for helping Green Bay to its first win there since 1997 with 10 tackles and a season best two passes defensed

COMMUNITY

In 2010, Arthur participated in the Toyota Rookie Club appearing at numerous community events throughout Western New York and Southern Ontario. The Toyota Rookie Club helps the franchises newest players become more involved in the Western New York community. Each month, Arthur and all first year players did one community appearance as a group. The Toyota Rookie Club events included a visit to the Buffalo Zoo to celebrate the 12th Annual Hometown Huddle, a visit to the North York YMCA in North York, Ontario to unveil a new Youth Zone and a trip to the Northwest Buffalo Community Center in November where the Rookie Club members served Thanksgiving Dinner to approximately 350 children and families. In addition to serving food, the players introduced themselves to the community members during a brief ceremony, sat and ate with them, and signed autographs. The final Rookie Club appearance of 2010 took place at the Annual Bills Holiday Party. The Rookie Club hosted 100 children from a number of different local community organizations. The Annual Holiday Party gives children from the organizations an opportunity to celebrate the holidays with the Bills players, Jills cheerleaders, Billy Buffalo and Santa Claus.

In addition to Arthur's Rookie Club appearances, he went above and beyond his rookie season and participated in many community events to show his support. In July of 2010, Arthur along with Levi Brown, Naaman Roosevelt and Torell Troup participated in the IZOD Street Party and Pit Stop Challenge in Toronto, Ontario. In addition to participating in the Pit Stop Challenge and Street Party, Arthur met with fans, signed autographs and posed for pictures.

Arthur along with many of his other teammates spent a day in July with the children of Stone's Buddies at the Buffalo Zoo. Arthur helped the children with arts and crafts, took them on a tour of the zoo, signed autographs and posed for pictures with the children and their families.

Along with many of his teammates, Women and Children's Hospital of Buffalo became a favorite place to visit for Arthur. Throughout the months of May, June and July, Bills players hosted a Cinco-de-Mayo party, Garden Stone Decorating parties and a Christmas in July party in the oncology and surgical floor playrooms. Players not only participated in arts and crafts, they also visited with patients and their families, signed autographs and posed for pictures.

Arthur also participated in the Bills and NFL's Annual High School Player Development (H.S.P.D.) camp which focuses on character development and specific football-skill training.

Arthur attended both the Kickoff Celebration and the Play 60 Fitness Party held in the Buffalo Bills Fieldhouse. Arthur along with his teammates helped the students in attendance understand the importance of staying active for 60 minutes a day and assisted in running the football-themed fitness stations.

Arthur and his teammates showed support for the Feed the Children organization when a tractor trailer of food was donated to the Food Bank of WNY. Arthur helped load boxes of food into the vehicles of 400 families, which were selected by the Food Bank of WNY.

He also supported his teammate Drayton Florence and the Drayton Florence Foundation by attending their annual Holiday Shopping event. Drayton adopted 29 children and took them shopping for gifts that were on their wish list. Arthur and many other players came out to support Drayton and helped the young men shop for gifts. Arthur also supported his teammate George Wilson and his S.A.F.E.T.Y. Foundation by attending their Thanksgiving event at Northwest Buffalo Community Center. George adopted 100 families and provided them with enough for a traditional thanksgiving meal. Arthur and other members of the team were at the community center to greet families and help them load the meals into their vehicles. Arthur also supported his teammate Brian Moorman and the PUNT Foundation by attending the Annual Black Tie Gala held in October of 2010, which raised over $80,000 benefitting children battling cancer.

COMMUNITY

In 2010, Reggie was the spokesperson for the Gift of Warmth Program which is done in partnership with M&T Bank and the Salvation Army. This year marked the 25th Anniversary for the program and helped with Reggie's help, $2,354.44 was collected to benefit the Salvation Army.

Reggie also showed his support by visiting Armor Elementary in Hamburg, NY which was named the "Play 60 Super School" through the Back to Football Friday Program. Reggie participated in the Ultimate Physical Education Class and presented the $10,000 grant to the school so they can continue their health and wellness initiatives.

Reggie participated in the 2010 Community Ticket Donation Program by donating 20 season tickets to various community groups in WNY. Over 200 people were part of Reggie Torbor's First and Five Foundation and attended Buffalo Bills home games where they were also treated to food and beverage coupons compliments of Reggie.

He also went to the Night out with the Bills which is put on by the Buffalo Pro Ministry Athletes in Action. The players in attendance shared stories about their views on faith, signed autographs and posed for pictures with over 700 members of the Buffalo Community.

Reggie along with select coaches and players gave thanks during the holiday season and provided 75 frozen turkey meals to Valley Community Center in South Buffalo. Each frozen meal was designed to feed a family of 15 people so with the help of Reggie and his teammates, 1,125 people were full on Thanksgiving.

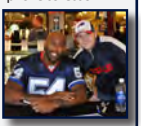
PERSONAL

Davis was a three-year starter at linebacker and fullback at Suwannee (Live Oak, FL) High School... Earned SuperPrep All-America honors and was ranked among the nation's top 15 linebackers... Ranked among the top 12 players overall in the state of Florida by SuperPrep and among the top 10 linebackers in the SEC region by PrepStar... Named team captain for both his football and basketball teams... Son of Vernon Keith Davis and Kaffa Virginia Owens... Davis and his wife, Monique, have three daughters: Alisha, Amber, and Andrea.

COMMUNITY

In 2010, Andra participated in an autograph signing as the spokesperson for the Verizon Wireless HopeLine cell phone collection program. The HopeLine program provides wireless phones and funding to domestic violence agencies nationwide. The phones are distributed to domestic violence survivors for use in an emergency and to help find housing, employment, childcare, etc. The cell phone collection took place at the Buffalo Bills vs. Jacksonville Jaguars game with each fan that donated a phone received a poster featuring Andra.



Along with many of his teammates, Women and Children's Hospital of Buffalo became a favorite place to visit for Andra. Throughout the months of May, June and July, Bills players hosted a Cinco-de-Mayo party, Garden Stone Decorating parties and a Christmas in July party in the oncology and surgical floor playrooms. Players not only participated in arts and crafts, they also visited with patients and their families, signed autographs and posed for pictures.

Andra also participated in the 2010 Community Ticket Donation Program by donating 20 season tickets to the Wounded Warriors. Over 200 people attended Buffalo Bills home games where they were also treated to food and beverage coupons compliments of Andra.

Andra supported his teammate Drayton Florence and the Drayton Florence Foundation by attending their Annual Holiday Shopping event. Drayton adopted 29 children and took them shopping for gifts that were on their wish list. Andra and many other players came out to support Drayton and helped the young men shop for gifts.

Andra along with select coaches and players gave thanks during the holiday season and provided 75 frozen turkey meals to Valley Community Center in South Buffalo. Each frozen meal was designed to feed a family of 15 people so with the help of Andra and his teammates, 1,125 people were full on Thanksgiving. Many of the Bills players are touched by the amount of children in the Western New York community that are in need during the holiday season. Andra along with other players and coaches adopted a group of students from the International Preparatory School at Grover to ensure they had a very Merry Christmas.

Andra also hosted his Annual Football Camp in his hometown of Live Oaks, Florida.

COMMUNITY

In 2010, Danny participated in the Toyota Rookie Club appearing at numerous community events throughout Western New York and Southern Ontario. The Toyota Rookie Club helps the franchises newest players become more involved in the Western New York community. Each month, Danny and all first year players did one community appearance as a group. The Toyota Rookie Club events included a visit to the Buffalo Zoo to celebrate the 12th Annual Hometown Huddle, a visit to the North York YMCA in North York, Ontario to unveil a new Youth Zone and a trip to the Northwest Buffalo Community Center in November where the Rookie Club members served Thanksgiving Dinner to approximately 350 children and families. In addition to serving food, the players introduced themselves to the community members during a brief ceremony, sat and ate with them, and signed autographs. The final Rookie Club appearance of 2010 took place at the Annual Bills Holiday Party. The Rookie Club hosted 100 children from a number of different local community organizations. The Annual Holiday Party gives children from the organizations an opportunity to celebrate the holidays with the Bills players, Jills cheerleaders, Billy Buffalo and Santa Claus. The children received a holiday dinner, pictures and autographs and gifts from a wish list that they had previously submitted.

Danny supported the Teammates For Kids Foundation this year by attending their annual dinner held in November. Danny along with his other teammates have supported the cause which was co-founded by Garth Brooks and Bo Mitchell over the past 5 years. He also attended a day at the Buffalo Zoo in July with the children from Stone's Buddies. Danny helped the children with arts and crafts, took them on a tour of the zoo, signed autographs and posed for pictures with the children and their families.

COMMUNITY

In 2010, Antonio participated in the Toyota Rookie Club appearing at numerous community events throughout Western New York and Southern Ontario. The Toyota Rookie Club helps the franchises newest players become more involved in the Western New York community. Each month, Antonio and all first year players did one community appearance as a group. The Toyota Rookie Club events included a visit to the Buffalo Zoo to celebrate the 12th Annual Hometown Huddle, a visit to the North York YMCA in North York, Ontario to unveil a new Youth Zone and a trip to the Northwest Buffalo Community Center in November where the Rookie Club Members served Thanksgiving Dinner to approximately 350 children and families. In addition to serving food, the players introduced themselves to the community members during a brief ceremony, sat and ate with them, and signed autographs. The final Rookie Club appearance of 2010 took place at the Annual Bills Holiday Party. The Rookie Club hosted 100 children from a number of different local community organizations. The Annual Holiday Party gives children from the organizations an opportunity to celebrate the holidays with the Bills players, Jills cheerleaders, Billy Buffalo and Santa Claus. The children received a holiday dinner, pictures and autographs and gifts from a wish list that they had previously submitted.

Antonio supported the Play 60 Challenge by attending the annual kickoff celebration held at Kleinhan's Music Hall in September. Over 2,500 Buffalo Public School students attended the rally and listened to the players give their favorite health tips and compete in a health and wellness themed quiz show. Antonio also participated in a Gatorade Junior Training Camp that was held at the Johnnie B. Wiley Amateur Athletic Pavilion in Buffalo. Antonio and the other player participants lead the students through football-themed drills and stressed the importance of the Buffalo Bills Play 60 program and being physically active for 60 minutes a day.

Along with many of his teammates, Women and Children's Hospital of Buffalo became a favorite place to visit for Antonio. Throughout the months of May, June and July, Bills players hosted a Cinco-de-Mayo party, Garden Stone Decorating parties and a Christmas in July party in the oncology and surgical floor playrooms. Players not only participated in arts and crafts, they also visited with patients and their families, signed autographs and posed for pictures. Antonio along with many of his other teammates spent a day in July with the children of Stone's Buddies at the Buffalo Zoo. Antonio helped the children with arts and crafts, took them on a tour of the zoo, signed autographs and posed for pictures with the children and their families.

Antonio also participated in the Bills and NFL's Annual High School Player Development (H.S.P.D.) camp which focuses on character development and specific football-skill training. Along with assisting in the football drills, Antonio helped spread positive messages about staying in school and on the right track.

Antonio also supported his teammate Brian Moorman and the PUNT Foundation by attending the Annual Black Tie Gala held in October, which raised over $80,000 benefitting children battling cancer.

COMMUNITY

Chris supported the Teammates For Kids Foundation this year by attending their annual dinner held in November. Chris along with his other teammates have supported the cause which was co-founded by Garth Brooks and Bo Mitchell over the past 5 years.

Chris is also involved in a number of other community programs. Chris supports the Circle of Friends program, which is designed to give once in a lifetime opportunities to children faced with cancer. He also established the Chris Kelsay TACKLE Foundation, which helps pediatric cancer patients.

Chris was one of the spokespersons for the 2010 Kids Escaping Drugs Campaign "Take Pride in Making Strides." With the help of Chris raising awareness for the cause, Kids Escaping Drugs was able to raise $3,295 in a two hour autograph session. Chris also supported his teammate Brian Moorman and the PUNT Foundation by attending Annual Pottery Painting in the Buffalo Bills Fieldhouse and the Annual Black Tie Gala held in October, which raised over $80,000 benefitting children battling cancer.

Many of the Bills players are touched by the amount of children in the Western New York community that are in need during the holiday season. Chris along with other players and coaches adopted a group of students from the International Preparatory School at Grover to ensure they had a very Merry Christmas.

COLLEGE

Started 42-of-44 games with 146 tackles (95 solo) and 21.5 sacks... became the sixth player in school history to compete in the Senior Bowl and first since 1980 (QB Gene Bradley)... 21.5 career sacks finished fourth in conference history and second in school annals. 2009: All-Sun Belt Conference first-team selection... named by the Little Rock Touchdown Club as its Arkansas State Player of the Year for the second year in a row... started all 12 games recording 41 tackles (28 solo) while tying for the conference lead with nine sacks, ranking T-25th in the nation... part of a defense that led the conference in total defense, holding opponents to 340.5 yards per game and 23.25 points per game... tied a Sun Belt game-record with four sacks vs. Western Kentucky. 2008: Named the Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Year and College Football News second-team All-American selection... 10.5 sacks ranked 14th in the nation finished one shy of the conference record... notched a career-high 53 tackles (36 solo) with 19.0 tackles for loss with two pass break-ups and one interception... first defensive lineman to win the conference Defensive Player of the Year Award since 2005 and the fourth defensive lineman to ever receive the honor. 2007: Honorable mention All-Sun Belt Conference selection... made the switch to left defensive end, starting all 12 games... tallied 38 tackles (20 solo)... posted a sack of minus eight yards vs. ULL. 2006: Made six starts in eight games at defensive end, totaling 14 tackles (11 solo)... recorded a sack for minus nine yards vs. SMU along with a forced fumble. 2005: Redshirt.

PERSONAL

Graduated with a degree in Psychology... helped lead Tupelo (Tupelo, MS) High School to the quarterfinals of the state playoffs as a senior in 2004 while posting 84 tackles, six sacks and three forced fumbles... all-region selection and recipient of the Coach's Award... added team MVP and Daily Journal all-state first-team honors in 2004.

COMMUNITY

In 2010, Alex participated in the Toyota Rookie Club appearing at numerous community events throughout Western New York and Southern Ontario. The Toyota Rookie Club helps the franchises newest players become more involved in the Western New York community. Each month, Alex and all first year players did one community appearance as a group. The Toyota Rookie Club events included a visit to the Buffalo Zoo to celebrate the 12th Annual Hometown Huddle, a visit to the North York YMCA in North York, Ontario to unveil a new Youth Zone and a trip to the Northwest Buffalo Community Center in November where the Rookie Club Members served Thanksgiving Dinner to approximately 350 children and families. In addition to serving food, the players introduced themselves to the community members during a brief ceremony, sat and ate with them, and signed autographs. The final Rookie Club appearance of 2010 took place at the Annual Bills Holiday Party. The Rookie Club hosted 100 children from a number of different local community organizations. The Annual Holiday Party gives children from the organizations an opportunity to celebrate the holidays with the Bills players, Jills cheerleaders, Billy Buffalo and Santa Claus. The children received a holiday dinner, pictures and autographs and gifts from a wish list that they had previously submitted.

Alex supported the Play 60 Challenge by attending the annual kickoff celebration held at Kleinhan's Music Hall in September. Over 2,500 Buffalo Public School students attended the rally and listened to the players give their favorite health tips and compete in a health and wellness themed quiz show.

Alex along with many of his other teammates spent a day in July with the children of Stone's Buddies at the Buffalo Zoo. Alex helped the children with arts and crafts, took them on a tour of the zoo, signed autographs and posed for pictures with the children and their families.

Many of the Bills players are touched by the amount of children in the Western New York community that are in need during the holiday season. Alex along with other players and coaches adopted a group of students from the International Preparatory School at Grover to ensure they had a very Merry Christmas.

PRO

Drafted in the sixth-round (169th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft... one of four Mississippi State team captain selections in 2011, the most in Bulldog books since 2001 (four players)

COMMUNITY

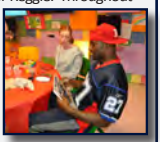
Along with many of his teammates, Women and Children's Hospital of Buffalo became a favorite place to visit for Reggie. Throughout the months of May, June and July, Bills players hosted a Cinco-de-Mayo party, Garden Stone Decorating parties and a Christmas in July party in the oncology and surgical floor playrooms. Players not only participated in arts and crafts, they also visited with patients and their families, signed autographs and posed for pictures.



Reggie also supported his teammate Drayton Florence and the Drayton Florence Foundation by attending their Annual Holiday Shopping event. Drayton adopted 29 children and took them shopping for gifts that were on their wish list. Reggie and many other Bills players came out to support Drayton and help the young men never forget the 2010 holiday season.

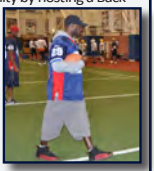
COMMUNITY

In 2010, Drayton reached the WNY community by hosting a Back to School Back Pack Giveaway and Holiday Shopping Event through the Drayton Florence Foundation. Drayton also hosted the Drayton Florence Make It Happen Youth Football Camp in his hometown of Ocala, FL. Drayton's camp is a free camp dedicated to teaching young athletes the skills required to be successful in the game of football.



Drayton also participated in the Bills and NFL's Annual High School Player Development (H.S.P.D.) camp which focuses on character development and specific football-skill training. Along with assisting in the football drills, Drayton helped spread positive messages about staying in school and on the right track.

Drayton supported his teammate Brian Moorman and the PUNT Foundation by attending the Pottery Painting Party held in September. Members of Camp Good Days and Carly's Club were invited to the Bills Fieldhouse to design and paint pottery pieces with their favorite Bills players. Drayton also participated in the 2010 Community Ticket Donation Program by donating 20 season tickets to the Wounded Warriors. Over 200 people attended Buffalo Bills home games where they were also treated to food and beverage coupons compliments of Drayton.

COMMUNITY

In 2010, Jairus really took his community outreach to the next level and supported many of his teammates, Bills programs and even came up with his own community endeavors. In April, Jairus hosted the Call to Courage Breakfast. Jairus presented the Call to Courage Award for an outstanding high school football player. In addition to being involved with the community of Buffalo, Jairus went to Toronto to participate in the 2010 Conn Symthe Dinner where he sat at the head table signing autographs and posing for pictures in support of the kids that were honored at the dinner. This dinner is meant to raise money and awareness for youth and young adults in Ontario with physical disabilities.

Jairus participated in the Night out with the Bills which is put on by the Buffalo Pro Ministry Athletes in Action. The players in attendance shared stories about their views on faith, signed autographs and posed for pictures with over 700 members of the Buffalo Community. He also participated in the Play 60 Fitness Party in December of 2010. Over 300 children from the Buffalo Public Schools came to the Bills Fieldhouse to enjoy the fitness party. Players in attendance discussed the importance of staying active for 60 minutes a day and assisted in running the football-themed fitness stations.

Jairus also showed his support by visiting Armor Elementary in Hamburg, NY which was named the "Play 60 Super School" through the Back to Football Friday Program. Jairus participated in the Ultimate Physical Education Class and presented the $10,000 grant to the school so they can continue their health and wellness initiatives.

Jairus participated in the 2010 Community Ticket Donation Program by donating 20 season tickets to Buffalo Public Schools. Over 200 people were part of The Byrd's Nest and attended Buffalo Bills home games where they were also treated to food and beverage coupons compliments of Jairus.

He was also announced as the 2010 Ed Block Courage Award Winner. Jairus was selected for his commitment to the principles of sportsmanship, courage, professionalism, dedication and serves as a community role model for other. Jairus has also started the 'Louder than Words' campaign via Facebook and Twitter which encourages people to share good deeds done by others.

In addition, Jairus supported his teammate Brian Moorman and the PUNT Foundation by attending the Pottery Painting Party held in September of 2010. Members of Camp Good Days and Carly's Club were invited to the Bills Fieldhouse to design and paint pottery pieces with their favorite Bills players.

COMMUNITY

A native of Western New York, Jon volunteers and makes appearances on a regular basis throughout the community whether it is to support a Bills event or one of his teammates. Jon participated in the Play 60 Fitness Party in December of 2010. Over 300 children from the Buffalo Public Schools came to the Bills Fieldhouse to enjoy the fitness party. Players in attendance discussed the importance of staying active for 60 minutes a day and assisted in running the football-themed fitness stations.

Jon supported his teammate Brian Moorman and the PUNT Foundation by attending the Annual Black Tie Gala held in October of 2010 as well as the Pottery Painting Party held in the Bills Fieldhouse in September. Jon was also a part of the Red Ribbon Rally in 2010. Jon, along with other Bills teammates spoke to students in Buffalo Public Schools and encouraged them to make good decisions and stay away from drugs.

He also participated in the Night out with the Bills which is put on by the Buffalo Pro Ministry Athletes in Action. The players in attendance shared stories about their views on faith, signed autographs and posed for pictures with over 700 members of the Buffalo Community. Jon also showed his support by visiting Armor Elementary in Hamburg, NY which was named the "Play 60 Super School" through the Back to Football Friday Program. Jon participated in the Ultimate Physical Education Class and presented the $10,000 grant to the school so they can continue their health and wellness initiatives.

COMMUNITY

George is one of the most active Buffalo Bills in the community. George is very involved in the Play 60 Challenge encouraging physical activity among children for at least 60 minutes every day. George helped to introduce the program in a kickoff celebration for over 2,500 students in the Buffalo Public Schools. At the assembly he participated in a Play 60 themed trivia show and also shared health and fitness tips with the group of students. George is one of four players featured on trading cards used in the Play 60 Challenge. The trading cards include health and fitness tips from players encouraging students to stay active as a part of the Play 60 program. George also participated in the Play 60 Fitness Party in December of 2010. Over 300 children from the Buffalo Public Schools came to the Bills Fieldhouse and players discussed the importance of staying active for 60 minutes a day and assisted in running the football-themed fitness stations.

George participated in the Night out with the Bills which is put on by the Buffalo Pro Ministry Athletes in Action. The players in attendance shared stories about their views on faith, signed autographs and posed for pictures with over 700 members of the Buffalo Community. George also was the spokesman for the American Red Cross Blood Drives at Ralph Wilson Stadium in September and November of 2010. With the help of George and the teams support, over 500 units of blood were collected, ultimately saving over 1,500 lives.

Along with many of his teammates, Women and Children's Hospital of Buffalo became a favorite place to visit for George. Throughout the months of May, June and July, Bills players hosted a Cinco-de-Mayo party, Garden Stone Decorating parties and a Christmas in July party in the oncology and surgical floor playrooms. Players not only participated in arts and crafts, they also visited with patients and their families, signed autographs and posed for pictures. George also supported his teammate Brian Moorman and the PUNT Foundation by attending the Pottery Painting Party held in September of 2010. Members of Camp Good Days and Carly's Club were invited to the Bills Fieldhouse to design and paint pottery pieces with their favorite Bills players.

The 2010 "That's Life" Program featured George and a group of 15 high school boys from a local community center breaking down life skills over a 6 week time period. George has helped these students learn the importance of staying away from gangs to preparing for college. George even helped the young men open their first checking accounts as well as took them to one of the finest restaurants in Buffalo to teach proper dining etiquette.

George participated in the 2010 Community Ticket Donation Program by donating 20 season tickets to Buffalo Public Schools. Over 200 people were part of George's Jungle and attended Buffalo Bills home games where they were also treated to food and beverage coupons compliments of George.

George also has his own foundation, this year the S.A.F.E.T.Y. Foundation hosted a Thanksgiving Turkey Giveaway at a local community center and a Perfect Attendance luncheon for students from the Buffalo Public Schools. He also finds time to give back to his hometown of Paducah, Kentucky through events supported by the S.A.F.E.T.Y. Foundation such as his youth retreat and football camp.

Scott, Bryan

COMMUNITY

Not only is Bryan very talented on the field, he is just as talented off the field. Bryan shared his gift of music and played the piano with the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra in front of 5,000 Buffalo Public School students. He is a great example to show students that you can play sports and get involved with the arts and be successful in both areas. Bryan is also featured in a PSA with BPO conductor JoAnn Falletta to join the two Buffalo teams together. To continue his love for music, Bryan joined the NFL Players Choir in Fair Park, Texas for the NFL Gospel Celebration. This was the 12th Annual Gospel Celebration which is held every year during the week leading up to the Super Bowl. The choir is made up of approximately 40 former and current NFL players.

Bryan is a very active member in the Play 60 Challenge as well. Bryan attended both the Kickoff Celebration and the Play 60 Fitness Party held in the Buffalo Bills Fieldhouse. Bryan along with his teammates helped the students in attendance understand the importance of staying active for 60 minutes a day and assisted in running the football-themed fitness stations. Bryan also showed his support by visiting Armor Elementary in Hamburg, NY which was named the "Play 60 Super School" through the Back to Football Friday Program. Bryan participated in the Ultimate Physical Education Class and presented the $10,000 grant to the school so they can continue their health and wellness initiatives.

He also served as an active spokesperson for the Buffalo Bills Billieve Breast Cancer Awareness Campaign. Bryan and his wife, Quiana, attended the Light the Falls pink event on October 1st and took the stage with ease as they spoke to the crowd about the importance of early detection and raising awareness. Bryan also supported the league wide initiative by wearing pink cleats, gloves and wristbands during the BCA home game on October 3rd vs. the New York Jets.

Along with many of his teammates, Women and Children's Hospital of Buffalo became a favorite place to visit for Bryan. Throughout the months of May, June and July, Bills players hosted a Cinco-de-Mayo party, Garden Stone Decorating parties and a Christmas in July party in the oncology and surgical floor playrooms. Players not only participated in arts and crafts, they also visited with patients and their families, signed autographs and posed for pictures.

Bryan participated in the 2010 Community Ticket Donation Program by donating 20 season tickets to various community groups in WNY. Over 200 people were part of B-Scott's Buddies and attended Buffalo Bills home games where they were also treated to food and beverage coupons compliments of Bryan. He was also one of the spokespersons for the 2010 Kids Escaping Drugs Campaign "Take Pride in Making Strides." With the help of Bryan raising awareness for the cause, Kids Escaping Drugs was able to raise $3,295 in a two hour autograph session.

Bryan participated in the Night out with the Bills which is put on by the Buffalo Pro Ministry Athletes in Action. The players in attendance shared stories about their views on faith, signed autographs and posed for pictures with over 700 members of the Buffalo Community.

In addition, he supported his teammates Brian Moorman and the PUNT Foundation as well as George Wilson and the S.A.F.E.T.Y. Foundation by attending their annual fundraising events in Buffalo. Bryan attended the Pottery Painting Party held in September and the Black Tie Gala in October for PUNT and the Thanksgiving event George put on in November.

COMMUNITY
Spencer and his teammates showed support for the Feed the Children organization when a tractor trailer of food was donated to the Food Bank of WNY. Spencer helped load boxes of food into the vehicles of 400 families, which were selected by the Food Bank of WNY.

The Spencer Johnson Foundation sponsored their 2nd Annual Amazing Race Weekend in Buffalo in October of 2010.

Many of the Bills players are touched by the amount of children in the Western New York community that are in need during the holiday season. Spencer along with other players and coaches adopted a group of students from the International Preparatory School at Grover to ensure they had a very Merry Christmas. Spencer also supported his teammate Drayton Florence and the Drayton Florence Foundation by attending their Annual Holiday Shopping event. Drayton adopted 29 children and took them shopping for gifts that were on their wish list. Spencer and many other players came out to support Drayton and helped the young men shop for gifts.

COMMUNITY
Kyle served as an active spokesperson for the Buffalo Bills Billieve Breast Cancer Awareness Campaign. Kyle and his wife, Jill, were at the Light the Falls Pink event held on October 1st and were featured in a PSA on the Buffalo Bills webpage. Kyle also supported the league wide initiative by wearing pink cleats, gloves and wristbands during the BCA home game on October 3rd vs. the New York Jets.

Kyle participated in the Night out with the Bills which is put on by the Buffalo Pro Ministry Athletes in Action. The players in attendance shared stories about their views on faith, signed autographs and posed for pictures with over 700 members of the Buffalo Community. Kyle also was one of the spokespersons for the 2010 Kids Escaping Drugs Campaign "Take Pride in Making Strides." With the help of Kyle raising awareness for the cause, Kids Escaping Drugs was able to raise $3,295 in a two hour autograph session.

Kyle supported the Teammates For Kids Foundation this year by attending their annual dinner held in November. Kyle along with his other teammates have supported the cause which was co-founded by Garth Brooks and Bo Mitchell over the past 5 years. Kyle also participated in the American Red Cross Blood Drive at Ralph Wilson Stadium in November of 2010. He visited with donors, signed autographs and posed for pictures. With the help of Kyle and the teams support, over 500 units of blood were collected, ultimately saving over 1,500 lives.

Kyle also supported his teammate Brian Moorman and the PUNT Foundation by attending the Annual Black Tie Gala held in October, which raised over $80,000 benefitting children battling cancer.

COMMUNITY

In 2010, Torell participated in the Toyota Rookie Club appearing at numerous community events throughout Western New York and Southern Ontario. The Toyota Rookie Club helps the franchises newest players become more involved in the Western New York community. Each month, Torell and all first year players did one community appearance as a group. The Toyota Rookie Club events included a visit to the Buffalo Zoo to celebrate the 12th Annual Hometown Huddle, a visit to the North York YMCA in North York, Ontario to unveil a new Youth Zone and a trip to the Northwest Buffalo Community Center in November where the Rookie Club members served Thanksgiving Dinner to approximately 350 children and families. In addition to serving food, the players introduced themselves to the community members during a brief ceremony, sat and ate with them, and signed autographs. The final Rookie Club appearance of 2010 took place at the Annual Bills Holiday Party. The Rookie Club hosted 100 children from a number of different local community organizations. The Annual Holiday Party gives children from the organizations an opportunity to celebrate the holidays with the Bills players, Jills cheerleaders, Billy Buffalo and Santa Claus. The children received a holiday dinner, pictures and autographs and gifts from a wish list that they had previously submitted.

In July of 2010, Torell along with Levi Brown, Naaman Roosevelt and Arthur Moats participated in the IZOD Street Party and Pit Stop Challenge in Toronto, Ontario. The event was to rally fans for the IndyCar Race that was happening the upcoming weekend. In addition to participating in the Pit Stop Challenge and Street Party, Torell met with fans, signed autographs and posed for pictures.

Torell supported the Play 60 Challenge by attending the annual kickoff celebration held at Kleinhan's Music Hall in September. Over 2,500 Buffalo Public School students attended the rally and listened to the players give their favorite health tips and compete in a health and wellness themed quiz show.

Torell also participated in the American Red Cross Blood Drive at Ralph Wilson Stadium in November of 2010. He visited with donors, signed autographs and posed for pictures. With the help of Torell and the teams support, over 500 units of blood were collected, ultimately saving over 1,500 lives. Torell also made a habit of visiting Northwest Buffalo Community Center in Buffalo during the season. He would make visits after school hours and read to the children, help them with their homework and play games.

Torell was also a supporter of the M&T Bank sponsored program, Touchdown for Teachers. Torell visited the grand prize winner, Bethany Maclam of Roy-Hart Middle School. Torell had the students play a trivia game about himself and his teammates, signed autographs and posed for pictures.

COMMUNITY

In 2009, Shawn participated in the Toyota Rookie Club appearing at numerous community events throughout Western New York and Southern Ontario. The Toyota Rookie Club helps the franchises newest players become more involved in the Western New York community. Each month, Shawn and all first year players did one community appearance as a group. The Toyota Rookie Club events included a visit to Dave & Buster's to play video games and host a pizza party with pediatric cancer patients hosted by Brian Moorman's PUNT Foundation, a visit to the Lawrence Park Collegiate Institute Panthers in Toronto, Ontario to discuss the importance of sport and activity with the student-athletes and to present the football team with $3,000 in new equipment for the school's football program, and a trip to the Northwest Buffalo Community Center in November 2009 where the Rookie Club Members served Thanksgiving Dinner to approximately 300 children and families. In addition to serving food, the players introduced themselves to the community members during a brief ceremony, sat and ate with them, and signed autographs. The final Rookie Club appearance of 2009 took place at the Annual Bills Holiday Party. The Rookie Club and Bills veterans hosted nearly 100 children from a number of different local community organizations. The Annual Holiday Party gives children from the organizations an opportunity to celebrate the holidays with the Bills players, Jills cheerleaders, Billy Buffalo, and Santa Claus. The children received a holiday dinner, pictures and autographs and gifts from a wish list that they had previously submitted.

COMMUNITY

Brian Moorman is one of the most admired and respected players in the NFL for his dedication to the community. He makes himself available to support the many organizations and agencies involved with the team, but on his own he goes above and beyond to help children – especially children facing cancer. In 2003, he established the Brian Moorman PUNT Foundation to support pediatric cancer research, treatment and social programs. A majority of his work is affiliated with Roswell Park Cancer Institute and Carly's Club, the hospital's family-centered support group for its patients.

Throughout each year, the PUNT Foundation hosts many events to raise awareness to their cause. In 2010, PUNT hosted its Annual Black Tie Gala, a Pottery Painting event and their Annual PUNT Triathlon.

In 2010, Brian participated in the 2010 Community Ticket Donation Program by donating 20 season tickets to Carly's Club. Over 200 people were part of Moorman's Miracles and attended Buffalo Bills home games where they were also treated to food and beverage coupons compliments of Brian.

Brian also supported the Teammates For Kids Foundation this year by attending their annual dinner held in November. Brian along with his other teammates have supported the cause which was co-founded by Garth Brooks and Bo Mitchell over the past 5 years.

In addition, Brian visited Armor Elementary in Hamburg, NY which was named the "Play 60 Super School" through the Back to Football Friday Program. Brian participated in the Ultimate Physical Education Class and presented the $10,000 grant to the school so they can continue their health and wellness initiatives.

Lindell, Rian

COMMUNITY

Rian teamed up with the Make-A-Wish Foundation in February of 2010 to grant a very special wish to WNY native, Chris. Rian surprised Chris at the airport as he and his family was off to the 2010 Super Bowl. Rian helped the family check their bags, signed autographs, posed for pictures and sent them off to their gate for what was going to be a very memorable trip.

Rian continued to show support for the Teammates For Kids Foundation this year by attending their annual dinner held in November. Rian along with his other teammates have supported the cause which was co-founded by Garth Brooks and Bo Mitchell over the past years. He also supported his teammate Brian Moorman and the PUNT Foundation attending the Annual Black Tie Gala held in October as well the Pottery Painting Party held in the Bills Fieldhouse in September.

COMMUNITY

Garrison supported the Play 60 Challenge by attending the annual kickoff celebration held at Kleinhan's Music Hall in September. Over 2,500 Buffalo Public School students attended the rally and listened to the players give their favorite health tips and compete in a health and wellness themed quiz show. Garrison also participated in the Play 60 Fitness Party in December of 2010. Over 300 children from the Buffalo Public Schools came to the Bills Fieldhouse to enjoy the fitness party. Players in attendance discussed the importance of staying active for 60 minutes a day and assisted in running the football-themed fitness stations.

Garrison showed his support for the Play 60 Movement once again by visiting Armor Elementary in Hamburg, NY which was named the "Play 60 Super School" through the Back to Football Friday Program. Garrison participated in the Ultimate Physical Education Class and presented the $10,000 grant to the school so they can continue their health and wellness initiatives.

Garrison also participated in the Bills and NFL's Annual High School Player Development (H.S.P.D.) camp which focuses on character development and specific football-skill training. Along with assisting in the football drills, Garrison helped spread positive messages about staying in school and on the right track.

Garrison supported the Teammates For Kids Foundation this year by attending their annual dinner held in November. Garrison along with his other teammates have supported the cause which was co-founded by Garth Brooks and Bo Mitchell over the past 5 years. Garrison also supported his teammate Brian Moorman and the PUNT Foundation by attending the Pottery Painting Party in the Bills Fieldhouse in September and the Annual Black Tie Gala held in October, which raised over $80,000 benefitting children battling cancer.
